APACHE KID. More Murders Committed by His Band.

A Discharged Railroader Wrecks a Train Up North. No Verdict the Result of the Trial of Bruner.

Southern Pacific Receives Another Scolding by the Traffic Association—Peculiarly Shocking Crime Committed by a Squaw.

By Telegram to The Times. TUCSON (Ariz.), Oct. 26.—[By the Associated Press.] The Star's special from Globe says that the renegade Kid and three or four Chiricahuas are reported in that vicinity.

Yesterday the same band killed an Indian and a young squaw at Black Border very near Gilson's ranch. Today at 10 o'clock John Keyser and other cowboys were chased by a party of three Indians, seven miles south of Globe.

Several cars derailed—No One Hurt—A Discharged Employee's Revenge. SPANGLER (Wash.), Oct. 26.—[By the Associated Press.] Some miscreant stole the lock from the switch at the north end of the railroad yard and threw the switch open on Monday night.

A RAILROAD'S METHODS. Southern Pacific Racked Again by the Traffic Association. SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—[By the Associated Press.] The annual meeting of the Traffic Association of California was called to order at 2 o'clock this afternoon by Barry Baldwin, first vice president of the association.

The influence of this railroad corporation on the State is not new. It has been the disposition to exercise that power in the interests of the people of the State. It is the intention of your committee to use all honorable and legal means to the end that that corporation, as a common carrier, shall hereafter respect the rights of the people and the law and will of the State.

A SQUAW'S REVENGE. Jealousy Prompts an Indian to a Horrible Murder. TILLAMOOK (Or.), Oct. 26.—[By the Associated Press.] A tragedy occurred at Nehalem last Saturday night resulting in the death of William Lattie, a half-breed. There was a dance at Lattie's house Saturday night, and a squaw known as Nehalem Lizzie, who lived with Lattie, became jealous of his attentions to other squaws present.

The coroner was called to the scene, and after a post mortem examination the jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the facts. The squaw was arrested and brought to this city, where she was placed in jail. She confessed the crime. Lattie was an intelligent half-breed, and at one time was very wealthy, owning large tracts of land on Clatsop Beach, which he sold to Ben Holladay many years ago. He squandered his money in drink.

A DESPERATE GUN. She Fires Four Shots at the Man Who Had Betrayed Her. SAN JOSE, Oct. 26.—[By the Associated Press.] This morning Eliza Millaud, a pretty French girl, entered the office of Mirandetti & Pene, liquor dealers, and shot at Joseph Mirandetti four times. She attempted to kill him because he had wronged her under promise of marriage, and refused to pay for the support of her child, which is a month old. None of the shots took effect. The girl is now in jail. She is entirely alone and penniless.

Ordered His Coffin and Suicided. SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—Frederick A. Brown committed suicide last night by shooting himself through the head. A queer circumstance connected with the case is the fact that Brown two days before went to an undertaker and made arrangements for his funeral. The undertaker notified the police, who arrested Brown, but he made no attempt on his life until last night. Five weeks ago he was sent by friends to the Keeley institute at Los Gatos, but came away before the cure was completed, and commenced a debauch which lasted until his death.

'Frisco's Chinatown Scorched. SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—The carelessness of a cook in a Chinese restaurant owned by Hong Fong Low at No. 713 and 715 Dupont street, this morning, caused a fire which destroyed half a block of property between Sacramento and Clay streets in the heart of Chinatown. A large number of Chinese butcher shops, cigar manufacturers and opium joints were burned out. The losses aggregate between $60,000 and $70,000. The losers are heavily insured. A number of firemen had narrow escapes from falling walls.

Rain in Southern California. REDLANDS, Oct. 26.—Rain began to fall here about noon today and continued in showers until tonight. There are prospects of a storm all night. Warning of the storm was given and the rain crop was all stacked. RIVERSIDE, Oct. 26.—The second rain of the season fell this afternoon, but not heavy enough to damage the rain crop.

The Bruner Jury Still Out. SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—The jury in the Bruner case had been out forty-eight hours at 11:30 a.m. today. At noon they sent word to Judge Wallace that there was no prospect of their agreeing on a verdict and asked to be discharged. The Court, however, decided that the jury should remain out for a while longer. It was reported that they were equally divided on the verdict.

A Tough Young Texan. MARTINSVILLE, Oct. 26.—Ben Slate, an eighteen-year-old boy from Texas, employed on the levee at the old Mesick ranch, engaged in a quarrel with a Chinaman working there and stabbed him. The Chinaman will probably die. Slate took a horse and decamped. Officers are in pursuit of him.

Murder in the Second Degree. STOCKTON, Oct. 26.—The jury in the case of Albert Dana this evening found him guilty of murder in the second degree, with a recommendation to the mercy of the Court. Dana was a horse trainer and shot and killed John Woods, keeper of a public house near the race track, in May last.

Married His Aunt. SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—A young Italian named Bill Nominai, aged 22 years, was married to his mother's sister, aged 27. The marriage was by contract on the high seas as a license had been received for the contracting parties on account of blood relationship.

San Jose, 10; Oakland, 6. SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—San José won the game with Oakland today. San José, runs 10, hits 11, error 2; Oakland, runs 6, hits 6, errors 6. Batteries, Lookabaugh and Clark; Horner, German and Wilson.

Costly Station Burned to Death. CHICO, Oct. 26.—In a fire early this morning, which destroyed the stable and residence of J. L. Duncan, the stallion Duncan Wilkes, valued at $10,000, was burned to death.

A NEW OVERLAND ROUTE. Plans for Another Transcontinental Line in British America. CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—[By the Associated Press.] Henry Croft, member of the Canadian Parliament from British Columbia, is in the city getting Chicago capitalists interested in a scheme to build a new Canadian railway. He has already been remarkably successful and is expected over $5,000,000 will be pledged here to further the enterprise. The road will be known as the Canada Western and will be 1045 miles long, opening up thousands of miles of good grazing, timber, farming and mining lands. Land grants will be secured from Parliament.

Express Messenger Roberts Positively Identifies Him. The Prisoner Becomes Nervous When the Latter Testifies.

Tracing Up the Defendant's Movements After the Robbery—Deputy Witty Tells of the Arrest at the Evans House.

By Telegram to The Times. FRENO, Oct. 26.—[By the Associated Press.] In the Sontag trial today George Roberts, the express messenger, told the story of the train robbery.

"How does the defendant compare with the man who entered the car as to voice, size and general appearance?" asked the District Attorney.

"In my own mind, I am perfectly satisfied that he is the man who entered my car that night," impressively answered the witness.

The answer caused a flutter of excitement among the spectators. The prisoner became nervous and whispered to his counsel. Roberts was then withdrawn.

At the afternoon session the cross-examination of Messenger Roberts was taken up. The whole story was gone over again, and the witness did not deviate from the testimony given by him on his direct examination. One important point of his testimony conflicted with Engineer Phillips. Phillips stated that the robber who seemed to be taking the lead and who is believed to have been the defendant, had a Canadian accent. Roberts testified that he had heard defendant's voice since the robbery and it was like the voice of the robber who treated him so roughly. He did not say, however, that he had a foreign accent.

Defendant's attorney asked the witness a number of questions for the purpose, as he stated, of showing that the witness was under the undue influence of the express company. They were objected to, however, by the prosecution and the objection was sustained.

E. C. Osborne, Deputy County Clerk, testified to the amount of money in the sacks, introduced in evidence in the forenoon.

S. B. Noel of Visalia, the next witness, said he saw defendant in Visalia at dinner after the robbery. Sontag said he was on the train at the time on his way from San Francisco, and that the passengers were badly scared. He told witness that he sat in the next coach to the express, and that he did get out of the car during the robbery.

Edward Bradley of Visalia, driver of the Palace bus from the hotel to the depot, told how he met the train from Goshen that connected with the robbed train. The prisoner rode in the bus with witness to the hotel. They went into a saloon together and Sontag told how he was on the train that was robbed and other matters connected with the robbery.

He also exhibited a screw head that he said had been blown out of the car. He told witness that he was in the passenger coach and that he went out at the rear end of the coach. Witness saw John Sontag in Visalia about three hours after that about 9 o'clock in the morning. He saw George Sontag about two weeks previous to the robbery and George said he was going to San Francisco.

Louis Niss, barkeeper in the Palace Hotel at Visalia, said he saw defendant in the barroom of the hotel on the morning of the train robbery about 5 o'clock. Sontag said he was in a passenger coach and went out on the platform at this and other primary markets continue.

There appears to be no let-up to the flow of wheat from the farmers' hands, which has been going on for weeks. The stocks are said to be enormous everywhere and constantly increasing at a rate truly astonishing.

Local stocks are the largest on record and yesterday aggregated 6,228,749 bushels, compared with 2,961,800 bushels at the same time last year, when the yield was one of the largest ever raised in this country. That the deluge of wheat now pouring into the spring and winter wheat markets is the natural result of the famous 'hold-over-wheat' circular, issued last year, is generally believed here.

It is the opinion of the trade that much of the wheat now being marketed is part of the 1891 crop, which has been held back by the farmers in anticipation of higher prices, which have not been realized.

The Transcontinentals. ST. LOUIS, Oct. 26.—Chairman Vining of the Transcontinental Association has sent a circular to the members calling attention to the numerous notices of withdrawal and suggesting that a meeting of the association be called for November 15, to take action thereon. This will probably be the last meeting of the association.

The W. C. T. U. Convention. DENVER (Col.), Oct. 26.—A large number of delegates to the Woman's Christian Temperance Union Convention, which meets Friday, arrived today. The board of superintendents and Executive Committee had a meeting today. A telegram of sympathy and condolence was sent to President Harrison.

The Militia Appropriation Inadequate. WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Gen. Flagler, Chief of Ordnance, in his annual report, calls attention to the inadequacy of the general appropriation for arming and equipping the militia, which, at the last session of Congress, was still further reduced.

American Humane Association. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 26.—The sixteenth annual convention of the American Humane Association began here today. The annual report showed an increasing scope of work. A number of important topics were assigned for discussion.

THE ONLY MAN.

Forty Thousand People Hear Gov. McKinley.

Cleveland and Stevenson Again Astride Their Hobbies.

Jerry Simpson Scared by an Alleged Plot to "Plug" Him.

Attempted Fusion in Oregon Causes a Serious Complication—A Kodak Used to Detect Election Crooks—Echoes.

By Telegram to The Times.

DANVILLE (Ill.) Oct. 26.—[By the Associated Press.] The McKinley demonstration here today was one of the greatest political rallies ever seen in this section of the State. Conservative estimates place the number of people at between 30,000 and 40,000. A great parade occurred in the forenoon, but more crowds poured in during the afternoon, and another parade was formed that the late arrivals might have a chance to vent their surplus enthusiasm.

Gov. McKinley arrived at 2:40 p.m., accompanied by ex-Congressman Cannon and others. He was greeted at the depot by a crowd of several thousand and driven rapidly to Elsworth Park, where his arrival was greeted by the assembled crowds with tremendous enthusiasm. He spoke at some length on the issues of the campaign. The greatest enthusiasm was manifested throughout. He closed with a eulogy of ex-Congressman Cannon and urged his election.

SIMPSON SCARED.

Alleged Discovery of a Plot to "Plug" the Socialist Statesman.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 26.—[By the Associated Press.] The Star's Wichita special says that Jerry Simpson has been warned of a conspiracy to kill him, and henceforth till the end of the campaign he will be accompanied by a bodyguard. The Democratic and Populist Congressional Committee for the Seventh District is thoroughly disconcerted at the wild story which intercepted letters reveal.

The story revealed in the correspondence is to the effect that some one writing over the signature of "F. A. P.," from McPherson and Emporia, to Robert Swiwell, at Harper, after unfolding a plan to "plug" Simpson, offered Swiwell $2000 to do the job. Swiwell is supposed to be an assumed name, but his letters have been called for regularly for the past six weeks. These letters were brought to Chairman Breidenthal of the Populist Congressional Committee, by S. E. Cole of Harper, chairman of the Populist Central Committee of that county. Tuesday morning, he says, a friend came to him Sunday, and after exacting a promise not to reveal his name, gave Cole three letters showing the plot as above, which he said he got from an unnamed man while drunk. The following day Cole took them to Wichita, and delivered them with the story to Chairman Breidenthal.

HOOSIER DEMOCRATS.

Big Demonstrations, Parade and Speeches at Elwood.

ELWOOD (Ind.) Oct. 26.—[By the Associated Press.] A great Democratic demonstration was held here today. A barbecue was to be the feature, but it was given up at the last moment and the multitude went hungry or bought dinner at hotels or restaurants. The crowd began to come in early, the incoming trains being thronged with enthusiastic Democrats, glee clubs, bands and drum corps from neighboring cities. A grand parade occurred, fully 2000 people being in line.

Congressman Bynum arrived at 9:30 and was escorted to the Democratic headquarters by at least 5000 people. Nearly every city of any importance in this part of the State was represented. In the afternoon the people repaired to the grove. The speakers of the day were: Hon. James E. Campbell of Ohio; Hon. W. D. Bynum of Indiana; Hon. George W. Houck of Ohio and Hon. John W. Lamb of Indiana. Ex-Gov. Campbell delivered an answer to Maj. McKinley's speech here September 18 regarding protection.

The demonstration tonight surpassed that of today, as afternoon trains brought fresh recruits. A torchlight procession and fireworks were the main features.

STEVENSON'S HOBBY.

Still Harping on the Alleged Bankruptcy of This Country.

BROOKLYN, Oct. 26.—[By the Associated Press.] The Democracy of Brooklyn turned out in full force tonight and held a great mass-meeting at the Academy of Music, where Adlai E. Stevenson, Vice-Presidential candidate, and Congressman Rayner of Maryland spoke on the issues of the campaign to over 4000 persons. [Stevenson received an ovation as he stepped upon the stage. Stevenson said in part:

At the close of President Cleveland's administration the surplus in the treasury, exclusive of the gold reserve, was $33,000,000. It will be remembered that during the latter half of his administration the important question was, 'What shall be done with the surplus revenues?' In view of the fact that the annual revenues of the Government were then $100,000,000 in excess of its expenditures, the question was one of interest to the American people. What is the condition which now confronts us at the end of three years and a half of Republican administration? On the basis of the estimates to the Government as estimated for the present fiscal year, and the liabilities of the Government on account of annual and permanent appropriations for the same period, there will be a deficit of $32,000,000. Upon the assumption that the law requiring $48,000,000 for a sinking fund shall be complied with, the deficit is increased to $80,000,000. The speaker asserted that the treasury always found its most faithful guardians in the Democratic party. Taking up the financial plank of the Chicago convention, he declared that it voiced his sentiments, and passing to the tariff, he denounced the Republican system of protection to certain industries by which heavy tariff burdens are laid upon the great mass of the people for the benefit of a favored few individuals who are fortunate enough to have its blessings. He added:

There has undoubtedly been a wonderful increase in the material wealth of the United States, but who has it? The answer is found in the unequal distribution. The accumulation of enormous private fortunes, the tendency to class legislation in exchange for political favors and the utter disregard of the rights of the tax-laden people. The speaker proceeded to give his views on the "Force Bill" and said the bill in every line and paragraph breathed distrust of the people. "This legislation," said he, "is devised in a spirit of hate."

Throughout his address Stevenson was repeatedly applauded.

CLEVELAND'S LITTLE SPEECH.

He Addresses a Select Gathering of "Buffaloans" at New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—[By the Associated Press.] A reception at the Imperial Hotel, was given tonight to ex-President Cleveland by the Buffaloans, a Cleveland club. It was attended by about 200 persons, consisting of members of the club and a few invited guests. Cleveland's arrival was the occasion for loud applause, and all those present remained standing until the speeches of the evening, which lasted almost an hour, were over. After a brief preliminary speech calling the meeting to order, the guest of the evening was introduced as one whose name created enthusiasm even when mentioned in a Republican meeting.

Mr. Cleveland spoke in a pleasant vein about his early days in Buffalo, and the friends of that time, whom he now found among the members of this club. In the atmosphere of personal friendliness that pervaded this occasion, he said, he nearly forgot that the organization has political plans and purposes. He was glad, however, when these plans and purposes recur to his mind that they merely add to his grateful appreciation of their personal kindness. Cleveland continued, saying:

Therefore, while my heart is full of gratitude to the friends I see about me, I cannot forbear the suggestion of my belief that your organization not only demonstrates your personal friendship for an old townsman, but also indicates that you are fully alive to your duty as good citizens. You know how devoted I am to the principles of the Democratic party, and your knowledge of me will I am sure, acquit me of insincerity when I express the opinion that the result of the pending political struggle means more to our country and our people than any in which you or I ever have been engaged. On one side the claim is defiantly and arrogantly announced that the functions of our Government may be made to our fellow-citizens to the detriment of the doctrine that their Government should, at all times, be administered directly for them and that they should not be obliged to receive its share of the blessings of the free Government they maintain the small portion which may filter through to them in the process of making special beneficiaries. In other words, the Democratic party is insisting upon an honest application of the rule that a government by the people should be government for the people.

It is as needless, as it is foreign to my purpose, to discuss in detail before those so thoughtful and intelligent as my Buffalo friends the differences between the political principles and purposes presented to our people for their approval. I only desire to assure you that the gratification your personal attachment affords is greatly enhanced by a consciousness that it is the attachment of those who are thoughtful and patriotic and by the conviction that the support you give in an organized manner to your old townsman cannot create in your minds the least suspicion that such support is in aid of principles at all inconsistent with the highest duty of an American citizen. It only remains for me to say that, whatever the result of the campaign, I shall always remember as its most pleasing incident this occasion and the evidence it furnishes me of the consideration and devotion of my Buffalo friends.

Cleveland was followed by Lieut.-Gov. Sheehan, who spoke of the certainty of New York going for the Democratic nominees.

AN OREGON Muddle.

Complications Arising from a Democratic Elector's Withdrawal.

SALEM (Or.) Oct. 26.—[By the Associated Press.] County clerks in Oregon are just now puzzled over the Australian ballot law. The resignation of Miller as Democratic elector, complicates matters, since the vacancy was filled by the nominating of Pierce, a People's party nominee. The clerks are unable to decide whether to place Pierce's name on the ticket in one, two or three places. The chairman of both the Democratic and Republican State committees and the Attorney-General agree that Pierce's name should be on the ballot in a group with the Democrats and Republicans. Others, however, hold that Pierce is the nominee of neither party separately his name must go on the ticket under a group headed, "Democratic-People's party."

Election Crooks Caught by a Kodak. DETROIT (Mich.) Oct. 26.—Already there are reports of fraudulent registration. It is stated that Burt, chairman of the Republican Committee, went from one registration board this morning carrying a kodak, with which he caught portraits of persons marked by detectives as either repeaters or aliens. But says the committee has the names of over 300 intending fraudulent voters.

Burmese Cannot Be Naturalized.

ALBANY (N. Y.) Oct. 26.—An interesting decision touching the question of naturalization has been rendered in the City Court 'on the application of a Burmese to become a citizen of the United States. The judge holds that a native of Burmah being neither a white alien nor an alien of African nativity or person of African descent, cannot be naturalized and admitted to become a citizen of the United States.

Fusion in Colorado.

DENVER (Colo.) Oct. 26.—Chairman McKinley, representing the Cleveland faction of the Democratic party of this State, has just returned from New York, where he has been in conference with the National Democratic Committee. As a result of the plans discussed there, it is said the Cleveland electors will be withdrawn and the People's party representatives substituted.

A Story About Stephen M. White.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—The Post today publishes a five-column article containing Hon. Stephen M. White has approved the People's party platform with the exception of the sub-treasury plank, and that he has been promised the support of that party's members in the Legislature for the United States Senate.

Grover and Adlai Confer.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Adlai E. Stevenson, Democratic candidate for Vice-President, spent several hours today in consultation with Cleveland. Among the subjects under discussion is said to have been Stevenson's forthcoming letter of acceptance.

Heavy Registration at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—Yesterday was the last day of registration before election. It is estimated that the total city registration is between 260,000 and 270,000.

No Fusion in Nebraska.

OMAHA, Oct. 26.—It is now stated that there is no foundation for the report that the Democrats of the State have decided to support the Weaver electors. On the contrary, when the matter was proposed it was overwhelmingly negative. Democratic leaders say they hope to carry the State for Cleveland.

No Opposition to Tammany.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—The County Democratic leaders tonight decided to withdraw the County ticket nominated in opposition to Tammany Hall.

PACIFIC RAILWAY SUITS.

Another Phase in the Litigation in Progress at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—[By the Associated Press.] Last spring the Pacific Car Company filed an intervening petition in the suit of Morse against the Pacific Railway Company for leave to sell $80,000 of bonds of the Los Angeles Railway Company, given to secure $75,000 indebtedness which the car company held against the Pacific Company. Judge Horton entered an order allowing the sale.

W. C. Goudy and other attorneys for the stockholders of the Pacific Railway Company objected to the sale. Goudy claimed that neither he nor the non-resident stockholders had any notice of the proceedings on the intervening petition. The court stopped the sale and referred the matter to a referee to take the evidence of stockholders concerning the car company's claim and the right to sell the bonds.

ON THE ROCKS.

Wreck of a Ship on the California Coast.

The Crew Forced to Take to the Boats—Picked Up by a Passing Tug and Landed in San Francisco.

By Telegram to The Times. SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—[By the Associated Press.] The crew of the ship Joseph F. Spinney, from New York for this port, with a cargo of general merchandise consigned to Sutton & Beebe, arrived this afternoon and reported that the vessel struck on a sunken rock in the vicinity of Port Ross, about seventy-five miles from San Francisco, late yesterday afternoon, and was wrecked with water. She was deserted by the captain and crew and now lies in about forty fathoms of water.

When the vessel struck she did so with such force as to punch an enormous hole in her hull forward, and before the captain and crew realized the extent of the damage to the ship, she was fast settling and the pumps could not be worked fast enough to lower the volume of water in her hold, and although the attempt to keep the vessel afloat was kept up for several hours, it was finally decided to abandon the ship and the boats were ordered lowered. The twenty-five persons comprising the crew gathered together whatever effects they could and deposited them in the boats, and deserted the vessel. The fishing tug Farragut, here yesterday, picked up the shipwrecked sailors and brought them to this city.

The vessel was built at Thomaston, Me., in 1871, and was valued at $85,000. She is owned by Joseph Spinney of New York, and will be a total loss.

COURSING.

Second Day of the Meeting at Great Bend, Kan.

GREAT BEND (Kan.) Oct. 26.—[By the Associated Press.] This was the second day of the annual meet of the American Coursing Association. The first round of the Derby and second round of the cup stake were run. The Derby Prize & Royce's Canary beat Allen's Jim Lyons, Prize & Royce's Raven beat Watson's Dry Dock, Bartlett's Boomerang beat Poetzell's Queenie, Prize & Royce's Sylph beat Lyon's Mayday, Lyon's Royal Ruby beat Lowe's Nancy, Laidlaw's Ketchum ran a bye, Lowe's Sir Hugo beat Prize & Royce's Marble, Luce's Lightfoot beat Lyon's Fantail, Luce's Llama beat Laura, Ballard's Buckskin beat Moses Trales, Jr., Lyon's Redwood beat Allen's Flying Fox, Rowe's Desarte beat Watson's Wasted Time, Lyon's Cavenor beat Prize & Royce's Rook, Lowe's White Lady ran a bye.

In the second round of the cup stake Lowe's Prince Charley beat Luce's Living Yet, Luce's Lady Barton ran a bye, Bartlett's Lost Lass beat Lowe's Lord Never Still, Roetzell's Fannie beat Haight's Soule, Lowe's Master Peter beat Luce's Lady Black, Bartlett's Monk beat Lyon's Haight's Britain, Yet, Allen's Woodward Boy beat Lowe's Prince Rupert.

A BROOKLYN SCANDAL.

A Sensation That Rivals the Great Beecher-Tilton Affair.

BROOKLYN, Oct. 26.—[By the Associated Press.] Millionaire William H. Langley, the wholesale dry goods merchant, has been sued for absolute divorce by his wife, Marie Belle Langley. Langley today had papers drawn up in a counter suit against his wife, and named William C. DeWitt, who was corporation counsel for fourteen years, as co-respondent. He also threatens a suit for $250,000 damages for alienation of Mrs. Langley's affections against DeWitt, who was chosen to present the defense of Senator David B. Hill at the recent Democratic National Convention in Chicago. Since the time of the Beecher trial no scandal has created so great a sensation in Brooklyn.

College Football Games.

BOSTON, Oct. 26.—The Harvard football team defeated Chicago at Cambridge this afternoon, 32 to 0. Yale defeated the Y.M.C.A. Training-school team at Springfield, 50 to 0. Princeton defeated the Manhattan Athletic Club, every man of which was an old Princeton player, 46 to 0.

Jailed on a Libel Charge.

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—A. S. Mercer, World's Fair Commissioner from Wyoming, was taken to jail this morning on a capias, being unable to furnish $5000 bail in the criminal libel suit brought against him Monday for publications in his paper growing out of the cattle troubles in Wyoming last spring.

More Homestead Outrages.

HOMESTEAD (Pa.) Oct. 26.—Lawlessness continues on the increase. Several non-uniforms were assaulted in daylight today, and crowds which defied the force of deputy sheriffs gathered in a short time and carried matters with a high hand.

Big Breweries Combine.

MILWAUKEE (Wis.) Oct. 26.—One of the biggest brewery combinations ever made was perfected today by the consolidation of the Pabst Brewing Company and the Falk-Jung and Borchert Company.

A HUGE GUN.

For Bombarding Dover from Calais.

Gloomy Prospect Arising from the Cotton Spinners' Strike.

Salvation Army Booth Sends Out a Strong Plea for Funds.

Woman Suffragists in England Urged to Try Dynamiting—Duelist Milbank Dead—Lady Randolph Churchill Seriously Ill—Flashes.

Telegram to The Times.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] The Morning Advertiser announces that the English War Office has accurate designs of a new French melinite gun of terrific power, which French gunners calculate will be able to bombard Dover from Calais, and also designs for a light railway to shift the gun along the coast.

THOUSANDS WILL BE IDLE.

The English Cotton Spinners' Strike Will Probably Be Long and Bitter.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] With a view to avoiding the calamitous effects of the threatened strike among the cotton operatives, the mayors of Liverpool and Manchester are trying to induce the disputants to consent to arbitration. The matter will be submitted to the council of the Cotton Spinners' Association a week from Saturday. It is believed, however, that it will prove fruitless. It is estimated that the threatened strike will affect 18,000,000 spindles. The Masters' Federation controls 18,000,000 spindles. The spinners of north and northeast Lancashire and Bolton will not be affected by the strike, and 5,000,000 spindles in those districts will be run as usual, paying the federation fine of 1 farthing per spindle per week. If 18,000,000 spindles stop 52,000 persons, a large proportion of whom are women and children, will be idle.

The stock of cotton yarn on hand is enough to last three weeks. If the strike continues longer, many weaving sheds will have to close. The fine of 1 farthing a week on each working spindle will provide an income of over $2000 weekly. This will enable the federation to continue the lockout. The operatives' organization is well prepared for a long struggle. Their fund already amounts to $120,000. The unaffected operatives are binding themselves to pay special levies during the strike.

GEN. BOOTH'S DILEMMA.

The Salvation Army Leader Appeals for More Funds.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] The committee headed by the Earl of Onslow to investigate the receipts and expenditures of the Salvation Army held its first sitting yesterday. Gen. Booth, head of the army, has appealed for $60,000 to enable him to continue his "Darkest England" work. He insists that unless this sum is received before Christmas he will be placed in a position of extreme difficulty and the further development of his scheme will be impossible. He asks all newspapers to publish leaders appealing to the public for money, as he says it will be almost impossible for the committee to issue a report for some time, and it is practically certain that money will be withheld pending the report. It appears from the appeal that Booth desires to escape from a dilemma and to abandon the "Darkest England" scheme.

PROTECTION APPROVED.

Labourers Admits That It Has Made This Country Prosperous.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] In Truth, Labourers expresses himself as thinking it doubtful whether many Europeans will visit the Chicago Fair and that people of the leisure class will prefer to visit the country when no fair is being held. He says:

It is certain, however, at the present moment that America is the most prosperous country in the world, despite our assertions that protection is ruinous. If I had been a mercantile man, I should have advocated protection. "The proof of the pudding is the eating." The protection pudding has provided more plentiful meat for Americans than free trade provides for us.

A Female Dynamiter.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—Miss Cozens, the noted female suffragist, speaking today at a meeting of the Woman's Emancipation Union, said that women should not go on talking until the crack of doom without getting redress for injustices. The time had come to do something desperate. Women, she declared, had dynamite at their disposal. This statement was greeted with applause.

Duelist Milbank Dead.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—Harry Vane Milbank, the duelist, who gained considerable notoriety in connection with the Coleman-Drayton-Borrowe scandal, died in Switzerland on Monday. He had been ill for some time and went to Switzerland for his health.

Another Effort for Mrs. Maybrick.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—Attorney Robertson applied to Justice Hawkins today for a writ of habeas corpus demanding that the Attorney-General show cause of the detention of Mrs. Maybrick. Justice Hawkins referred him to the Home Secretary.

Early Winter in Scotland.

EDINBURGH, Oct. 26.—Intensely cold weather prevails in Scotland. The lochs in Perthshire are covered with thick ice. Snow lies deep on the mountains.

Lady Churchill Dangerously Ill.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—Lady Randolph Churchill, formerly Miss Jennie Jerome of New York, is dangerously ill.

Wales Will Visit the Fair.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—It is stated the Prince of Wales and son, Duke of York, will visit the World's Fair.

More Diseased Cattle.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—Pleur-pneumonia was discovered in Canadian cattle landed at Dundee.

White to Be Extradicted.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Gov. Flower today granted the requisition of the Wyoming authorities for Charles A. White.

CORBETT PURSUED.

An Infatuated Woman and an Angry Man After the Fugitive.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 26.—[By the Associated Press.] The Times-Star this afternoon received a special from Chicago saying that Max Blumenthal had left that city heavily armed after a woman who was with Pugilist Corbett, and adding that a bloody encounter between Blumenthal and Corbett was imminent.

The dispatch was shown to Corbett, who said: "This is the woman who followed me about while I was in Chicago and was an annoyance to me. One night she came to the theater in a carriage and was right at the stage door when I came out. She insisted upon my getting in and I did. We rode down to the hotel. When we arrived and I alighted, and this fellow came up to me and murmured something which I could not understand, and came at me as though he had a gun in his overcoat pocket. I looked at him and said: 'Why, what do you mean?' Then he made another bluff at me. He did not swear, but mumbled. I could not tell what he said. I then said: 'Oh, a girl of yours, is it?' and walked away. 'That's all there is to that and to the whole matter. I do not care for the threats, but I am a married man and my wife will read these things and it will get me into trouble with her. That's why I hate these lying articles and telegrams, but I can tell you that the woman is not here. That is my story and it's a true story.'"

A WIDOW'S WOE.

Sued by the Man Who Tried to Make Her Marry Him.

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—[By the Associated Press.] Mrs. J. W. Tuohy, a wealthy and good-looking widow, who owns one of the largest retail dry goods stores in this city, was in court today defending a suit for $100,000 damages brought by one of her former clerks, Cornelius S. Tuomy. The plaintiff alleges false arrest. His attorney said that after the death of Mr. Tuohy the widow and Cornelius became lovers, she often taking him in her carriage riding, and he visiting her house. One day, without warning, the plaintiff found himself discharged from the store, and on going to the residence for an explanation, was arrested by a policeman called by the widow and locked up. She failed, however, to prosecute him.

Mrs. Tuohy was very nervous in the witness chair and sobbed bitterly. She testified that she found the plaintiff, and within four months after her husband's death proposed marriage, adding that if she refused it would mean bloodshed. Thinking him crazy, she temporized desiring to avoid a sensation. Tuomy haunted the house, and she finally had him arrested as a nuisance.

REBELS ANNIHILATED.

Terrible Results of the Outbreak in Chihuahua.

EL PASO (Tex.) Oct. 26.—[By the Associated Press.] News is just received here of the total destruction of a whole town in Western Chihuahua, Mexico. Dispatches have told the story of the religious fanaticism that prevailed in the town of Jamochio, situated in the mountains, about 300 miles west of the city of Chihuahua. Federal troops were sent out there twice to compel submission to the authorities, but each time the troops were worsted. The third time a full regiment was sent out under what was considered a competent officer and accompanied by a battery of two Gatling guns. The result of the battle which was fought last Saturday was the total annihilation of the rebels and the killing of more than 300 federal soldiers.

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—The rumor that Indians have defeated the troops at Tomashoc, Chihuahua, are officially declared to be untrue. Gen. Marquez routed the Indians and took their stronghold. Some Indians submitted and others fled to Texas. The ring-leaders will be shot.

THE MOHICAN'S ESCAPE.

She Strikes a Rock and is Almost Wrecked.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—[By the Associated Press.] The Examiner publishes the following: At the fabulous cost of over $1,500,000, and with scarcely eight years of active service to her credit, the United States steamer Mohican, standard fair chance of being condemned, put out of commission and assigned to permanent moorings in the "rotten row," at Mare Island. Nothing short of a miracle saved her from total destruction and many of her crew from a watery grave during her recent cruise in Bering Sea. While cruising in the vicinity of Cook's Inlet on June 5 last, the Mohican ran upon a hidden rock, striking no less than three times before her keel had passed over. As a heavy sea was running it was thought that she would pound herself to pieces. The crew were called to quarters, preparatory to abandoning the ship, but, fortunately, a huge sea cleared the ship over the rock and she put into Cook's Inlet.

The World's Fair Liquor Question.

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—Martin Ryaa of North Dakota at today's session of the World's Fair National Commission, argued strongly against the establishment of bars and saloons on the exposition grounds. He was supported by King of Iowa and Halliday of Kansas. After considerable debate the matter was laid over.

Commissioner Massey said it was understood the Chicago directory intended to allow the sale of liquor only at cafes and restaurants.

Four Persons Asphyxiated.

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—Carelessness in turning off gas jets resulted in the death of four people here today. Two printers, Bartie Goddard of Terre Haute and John Glanser of St. Louis, were found dead in their rooms this morning, and in the afternoon in another part of the city, A. B. Collins and wife (colored) were found dead from the same cause.

Trust Undertakers to Be Arrested.

TOPEKA (Kan.) Oct. 26.—Warrants are in the hands of the United States Marshal for the arrest of fifty-eight Kansas undertakers for violating the anti-trust law in forming a combination to fix prices. The fight is being made by undertakers of Leavenworth and Atchison who are outside of the trust.

Sensational Paris Divorce Case.

PARIS, Oct. 26.—The suit of the young Count Menebra for divorce from his wife was begun in this city today. The Count and Countess are prominent members of the aristocratic society of France. The Count is the son of the old Count Menebra, who was for many years Italian ambassador to France.

A Splendid Article on Ventura County.

AMUSEMENTS TONIGHT.

AT THE OPERAHOUSE—Nothing but Money.

THERE isn't even enough of Adlai's letter for bait.

UNDER the new system it is take up your cross and vote.

FOR a sick man, Mr. Blaine handles a pen in the most remarkable way.

TO look at Hattie Monroe's picture you wouldn't think she would do anything like that.

PERHAPS Pop Dana has gone over to England to raise a sack for free-trade Grover! Who knows.

ADLAI probably has done most of his campaigning down South because there was where he felt most at home.

DON'T forget the relief fund for the benefit of the sufferers by the explosion. It grows, but not half fast enough.

DO NOT forget that if you haven't registered your name is Dennis, but you won't find it among the D's or any place else.

THE Chicago papers all agree that that ode is just great stuff, and don't you forget it!—And from the Chicago standpoint it is—there is lots of it.

THE Chicago Herald has issued a diagram of Harriet Monroe's ode, but the diagram is even denser than the other stuff. What is Chicago driving at any way?

IT is to be hoped that Grover kissed that $10,000 check good by before he mailed it to Mr. Harrity. He will never see it again, nor the thing it went to buy.

POP DANA's paper advises people to vote the Democratic ticket, but not to tell on it. We heartily concur in the tail end of this advice, but as to the front end of it—don't.

GRAY GABLES is not for sale, all reports to the contrary notwithstanding. Grover knows he is going to need that home where the buzzards soar next year just the same as he did previously.

FROM all accounts that round-up at Turnverein Hall on Tuesday night was a spectacle worth going miles to see. Our friends, the enemy, are great things on making a gathering full of chic, fireworks and unprintable language.

THE most significant, and the only full utterance so far by Mr. Blaine in the present national canvass, will be his article entitled "The Presidential Campaign of 1892," in the North American Review for November. He speaks with vigor, making some points that are entirely new in the discussion of the issues, and his article is marked with that vigor and that purity of style for which Mr. Blaine is distinguished.

MR. J. T. SHEWARD writes to THE TIMES acknowledging the authorship of one of the anonymous circulars recently issued attacking the water system of the hills and certain citizens. He defends his course, justifying it partly on the ground that the circular was issued on the principle of let talions, an anonymous circular against the water bonds having provoked the publication. Mr. Sheward asserts that he has no apologies to make, and that he has been acting in defense of his own home and the homes of his neighbors. He says:

I have endeavored in every possible way to get water upon the hills, and my efforts have all been directed against the Citizens' Water Company. What I have done has been done openly, boldly and fearlessly.

THE TIMES desires to say at this time only this: That the discussion of this question, in order to be productive of any good results, should be carried on openly and candidly and by responsible citizens.

The City Debt.

If it were true that this city is burdened with debt to an abnormal extent, as the opponents of water bonds would have us believe, there would be many to hesitate about increasing that burden. Let us examine the facts, and find out the exact truth of the matter.

The statistics of eleven cities of the United States, taken at random, and selected because they are about the size of Los Angeles, are given below:

STATISTICS

of eleven cities of the United States as to population, debt, assessed valuation and rate of taxation:

City	Population	Total debt	Per capita debt	Assessed valuation	Tax rate
Los Angeles	100,000	$1,000,000	$10.00	$10,000,000	1.00
San Francisco	200,000	$2,000,000	$10.00	$20,000,000	1.00
New York	1,000,000	$10,000,000	$10.00	$100,000,000	1.00
Chicago	500,000	$5,000,000	$10.00	$50,000,000	1.00
Boston	300,000	$3,000,000	$10.00	$30,000,000	1.00
Philadelphia	400,000	$4,000,000	$10.00	$40,000,000	1.00
San Antonio	100,000	$1,000,000	$10.00	$10,000,000	1.00
San Diego	100,000	$1,000,000	$10.00	$10,000,000	1.00
San Jose	100,000	$1,000,000	$10.00	$10,000,000	1.00
San Bernardino	100,000	$1,000,000	$10.00	$10,000,000	1.00
San Gabriel	100,000	$1,000,000	$10.00	$10,000,000	1.00
San Luis Obispo	100,000	$1,000,000	$10.00	$10,000,000	1.00

A study of this table shows that the rate of taxation does not vary directly with the amount of the city debt, but is measurably independent of it. That is to say, the administration of the city affairs has more to do with the amount of tax levied than the amount of debt outstanding. It is not the expenses for interest and sinking fund, but the amount that is paid for "other municipal purposes" that makes the tax high or low. With an honest and economical administration, the tax will be reasonable; with an extravagant administration, the tax will be high, even if there be a small debt.

In the case of Los Angeles, only 17 per cent. of the tax levy is for the payment of interest and sinking funds, while 83 per cent. is for other "municipal purposes." The large item is the one in which to make the saving.

But to return to our comparison. Los Angeles has, at present, as small a debt per capita as any city in the list ($22); and but two others have as low a per capita debt. Both of these have a much higher rate of taxation than Los Angeles.

If the proposed water bonds are added to the present debt Los Angeles will then have a per capita debt of $31, and there are only three others in the list that will have a less debt. One of them has a debt of $80 per capita, or about what Los Angeles would have with the water bonds issued. All of the others have a greater, and some a much greater per capita debt. But it will be noted that those with the largest per capita debt do not have the highest tax rate. Los Angeles enjoys the distinction of having one of the lowest debt rates and the lowest tax rate in the whole list.

Now, this all shows that we are not burdened with debt out of proportion to other cities, and that we compare favorably with other cities as to our tax rate. We should bear in mind that our city is growing rapidly and needs many things of great cost in a short time. We are entitled to use our credit to a reasonable extent, and we should be careful not to go beyond that. So far, as is shown by the comparison, this city has not gone rashly into debt, and we believe that there is no danger of our doing so.

In all countries water works are regarded as a favorite investment for municipalities. They are a revenue-producing property, and the returns are among the safest and surest. Why should not the people at this time use their credit to a reasonable degree to inaugurate a municipal system, and give the public the benefit that experience shows is sure to follow the public ownership of water works?

It is sometimes an excellent plan for a poor man to buy a home and pay for it on the installment plan. It is equally good policy for the city to buy and own its system of domestic water supply.

The Question of Regulating County Saloons.

The Liquor Dealers' Association of this county, as shown by one of their circulars which we published the other day, have decided to use all of their influence for the election of the three Democratic candidates for Supervisors.

Why they favor the election of the Democrats was also shown pretty conclusively. The liquor men wish to break down the system of license and regulation of the liquor traffic which has been established by the present Board of Supervisors. Outside of corporate towns they wish to establish saloons without let or hindrance, and to keep their saloons open on Sunday.

Furthermore, they wish to dispense with the license tax which they are now required to pay into the county treasury.

Two of the Democratic Supervisor candidates—Messrs. Collins and Hanley —were formerly members of our City Council. It will be interesting to note in this connection what stand they then took on the question of regulating the liquor traffic in this city.

In volume 27 of Records, page 328, in the minutes of the session of the Council held October 8, 1888, appears the following:

Draft of an ordinance regulating the closing of saloons, bars and tipping houses in the city of Los Angeles was read, and, on motion of Mr. Matthews to adopt under a suspension of the rules, was defeated by the following vote: Yeas—Councilmen Book, Chandler, Hiller, Matthews and President Humphreys (5.) Nays—Councilmen Cohn, Collins, Gibbs, Hanley and Moriarty (5.)

Councilmen Collins and Hanley were both opposed to closing city saloons at a stated hour at night and on Sunday. Of course, if they should be elected to the Board of Supervisors they would oppose regulating the liquor traffic outside of town.

Again, referring to the record (volume 28, page 193), January 14, 1889, Mr. Boshyshell introduced the following:

In view of the fact that a great portion of the crime in this city is created during the hours when orderly, peaceable citizens are sleeping, and therefore defenseless; and, whereas, our police force is not strong enough to cover so large a territory as needs police vigilance, therefore we recommend that an ordinance be drawn providing for the closing of all saloons at the hour of 12 o'clock at night, and the same to remain closed until 5 o'clock in the morning.

On motion of Mr. Cohn the above was laid on the table. (Mr. Hanley undoubtedly voted with Mr. Cohn on this proposition.)

Vol. 28 of Records, page 227, Jan. 21, 1889: Mr. Sinsabaugh introduced the following resolution, and, on motion of Mr. Boshyshell, it was by the Council adopted by the following vote: Yeas—Councilmen Barrett, Boshyshell, Bryant, Earl, Ford, Humphreys, Shafer, Sinsabaugh and Threlkeld (9.) Nays—Councilmen Cohn, Hanley, McNally, Moriarty and President Kuhrtz (5.) The said resolution was as follows:

In view of the fact that a great proportion of the crime in this city is committed during the late hours of the night, when orderly, law-abiding citizens are sleeping, and therefore defenseless, and, whereas, our police force is not sufficient to cover so large a territory as needs police oversight, therefore we recommend that the City Attorney be required to draw an ordinance closing all the saloons in the city at the hour of 12 o'clock at night, and that they be kept closed until the hour of 5 o'clock in the morning.

Thus we have Mr. Hanley on record twice, and probably three times, as voting against the regulation of the liquor traffic in this city, and Mr. Collins on record once. It is an easy matter to see how they stand.

If the people of the outlying sections of this county do not desire to have the present salutary regulation of saloons broken down, they ought to work hard for the election of the Republican Supervisor candidates. If the prohibitionists want to further the cause of temperance and good morals, they will lend a helping hand. Perhaps it is asking too much to urge them to give up their fads for the time being to help this measure of practical reform, but they will never have a better chance to strike effectively for temperance.

Municipal Politics.

The Democrats have made their nominations for municipal offices, and their ticket is before the voters.

The situation that confronts us has several aspects that need to be understood by all citizens:

(1.) At the head of the Democratic municipal ticket is the name of Thomas E. Rowan, whom everybody knows as "a genial, whole-souled gentleman," with a round person and exceedingly smooth manners—so smooth as to be positively "slick." Mr. Rowan, with his Democratic instincts and social surroundings, cannot be expected (should he be elected Mayor,) to ally himself with those municipal reforms which we believe are near to the hearts of the best citizens of the city—reforms necessary to the welfare of Los Angeles in the best sense. Mr. Rowan is "not built that way," and the leopard is not wont to change the pinto peculiarity of his hide—not to any great extent. So we do not need to further discuss Mr. Rowan; all know where he stands.

(2.) The Democrats and liquor men and their Republican allies are unquestionably making strenuous efforts to control both the county and the city governments in the interest of unlicensed liquor-selling. All signs point to this object unerringly. The liquor dealers have singled out and settled upon M. T. Collins, J. H. Brewer and James Hanley, in the Second, Fourth and Fifth Supervisor districts, respectively, to receive the votes of the "faithful." These Democratic candidates are being supported tooth and nail by the liquor element against the Republican nominees, Messrs. Francisco, Hay and Stockwell, whom the no-license advocates unwarrantably charge with being "prohibitionists."

(3.) In the city contest the tactics of the liquor men (Democrats and Republicans) are equally transparent. Rowan, the Democratic nominee for Mayor, is "a good enough Morgan" for them. But they do not propose to stop there; they will, if they can, control the Republican nomination for Mayor.

(4.) There is but one man on the list of Republican aspirants for the chief place who will receive the dubious support which we have described.

(5.) This being the complexion of the coming contest, we say let the issue be boldly met, not alone by the Republican party as such, but by the mass of temperate, law-loving and law-abiding citizens, without respect to party affiliations. Let the friends and opponents of good government divide squarely on this issue, and let the fight be made on this line! We do not dread the issue of the contest.

(6.) The Republican City Convention is coming on. There is a host of aspirants for the several nominations. Among them are some first-rate men, and some second, third, and even fourth-rate men—too many of each of the latter grade. None of these should be chosen; only first-class men should be considered in the delegate elections and in the convention. The Republicans cannot repeat the blunders of the past and expect to win. We have no right to expect success with a bad or a weak ticket. The people will have none of either. The convention may act, but the ultimate judgment will be rendered at the polls. We advise no voter to support an unworthy ticket. The remedy is simple and direct: give the cold shoulder in the coming convention to inferior and doubtful candidates, who, like the poor, are always with us. Nominate only acceptable men. A weak Republican ticket will be beaten; a strong one can be elected.

(7.) The head of the ticket is of the first importance. There are not less than five candidates in the field for the chief place. In the scramble for the alleged prize we run the risk of not getting just the right man. This would be a misfortune. We think that the contest should be simplified by the elimination of several of the candidates. This work of thinning out can be largely done by the voters at the primary election; they have the power to choose delegates who will achieve good results in convention, who will work only for the common good and for success. Let all Republican citizens vote at the Republican primaries, or this so greatly desired result will not be attained.

(8.) THE TIMES, animated by a strong desire to see right results achieved, urges the nomination for Mayor of the best available citizen who can be induced to make the race. That citizen may or may not be included in the present list of known aspirants. A man of the general type and character of J. Q. Tufts—(there are other citizens of the same type)—would be a choice fit to be made. Such a man could be elected, for his name would bring to his support practically the entire Republican strength, and many Democratic and independent votes besides—the votes of self-respecting political opponents whose first aim, in common with that of other good citizens, is and would be to perpetuate in the municipal administration the triumph of law and order and the just and conservative control of the liquor traffic, which will not down and which can never be permitted to run itself.

(9.) Then comes the new Council to be elected. None but the very best available men in the several wards should even be considered if we are to have a legislative body equal to the work that will be required of it. The leading problems for it to wrestle with, when elected, will be the sewer and water questions, the police service and the safe regulation of the liquor traffic, including the Sunday and midnight closing of saloons.

With all these grave problems before them, how can right-meaning Republican citizens sit supine and let the battle go by default?

The Liquor Men Still in Politics.

THE TIMES has been requested to give editorial prominence to the following smooth and cunning denial:

We, the undersigned members of the board of directors of the Southern California Protective Association, hereby certify and declare that we have never sought nor received any pledge or promise from any of the candidates for office, nor have we had any communication whatever with M. T. Collins, J. H. Brewer or James Hanley regarding the future policy of county government.

JOSEPH MAIER,
H. J. WOOLACOTT,
P. P. KIEFER,
JACOB ADLOFF,
EDMOND LAVENTHAL,
ROBERT KEEN,
Directors.

Witness:
JAS. B. DENNIS, Secretary.

Adequate comment upon the above very innocent-sounding denial is furnished by the following official circular, which it was not intended should be allowed to get out:

THE SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION.
(Circular to Members.)

The following is an extract from the proceedings of a meeting of the board of directors of this association, held September 27, 1892:

Moved by P. P. Kiefer (Republican) and seconded by H. J. Woolcott (Democrat) that it be recorded as the sense of this meeting that this association shall endorse the following nominees for Supervisors:

"M. T. Collins, Second Supervisorial District.

"J. H. Brewer, Fourth Supervisorial District.

"James Hanley, Fifth Supervisorial District.

"And that the secretary is hereby instructed to notify all members and request them to work and vote for these nominees.

"Upon the motion being put it was carried unanimously."

In accordance with the above instructions I beg to solicit your cooperation, believing that our only chance to obtain liberal-minded legislation in county affairs depends upon the election of the nominees named above.

Yours truly, JAMES B. DENNIS, Secretary.

Approved: JOSEPH MAIER, Vice-President.

It makes no difference whether any distinct "pledge or promise" was exacted from or given by the Democratic candidates above named; it is sufficient to know that Messrs. Collins, Brewer and Hanley are each and all the first and only choice of the officers and members of the "Southern California Protective Association" for the office of Supervisor, against their Republican opponents, Messrs. Francisco, Hay and Stockwell, who are not "prohibitionists" in any sense of the word, though safe liquor-traffic regulators on principle.

The case seems to be fully proven; it is proven.

The voters of the districts concerned now know where the Liquor League is "in politics."

The Deficiency Amendment.

Assembly constitutional amendment No. 8, to be voted on November 8, is designed to amend section 34, Article IV, which now stands as follows:

Section 34. No bill making an appropriation of money, except the general appropriation bill, shall contain more than one item of appropriation, and that for one single and certain purpose to be therein expressed.

The proposed substitute for this section is as follows:

Section 34. No bill making an appropriation for money, except the general appropriation bill, shall contain more than one item of appropriation, and that for one single and certain purpose to be therein expressed.

It promises to be a gala night, as the advance sales are very large.

expressed. When the deficiency bill is presented to the Governor he may object to one or more items, while approving other portions of the bill. No officer of the State shall have power to incur any deficiency except in case of actual necessity, and then only upon the written authority first obtained of the Governor, Secretary of State and Attorney-General. Any deficiency incurred in violation of this provision shall be void, and the Legislature shall not have the power to appropriate money to pay the same.

It will be seen that the main object of this amendment is to place greater safeguards around the incurring of unauthorized indebtedness by State officials and working them through the Legislature in the form of deficiency bills. This is an evil from which this State has suffered to a considerable extent in the past, and it would seem as though a very salutary check has been proposed. There is, in fact, a double check. The written consent of the Governor, Secretary of State and Attorney-General will first have to be secured to authorize a deficiency indebtedness, and afterward, when a general deficiency bill which has passed the Legislature goes to the Governor, he may pick out any single item and veto it, while approving the rest.

This is one of the best amendments which has been proposed, and we think the people can make no mistake in giving it their indorsement.

The Columbian Pictorial Supplement.

All subscribers to THE TIMES and all purchasers of the Columbian Number (issued October 21st) are entitled, free, to the pictorial supplement, which constitutes Part III of that number.

If you have not received it, call upon your news agent or dealer, or address THE TIMES. It will be a favor to us if you will do so.

THE TIMES of Los Angeles has got a new press of the "Presto" change variety, and the shout of joy that arises from that "staff" is heard even beyond the confines of the State. It was operated a few days ago in the presence of a thousand appreciative friends. THE TIMES, however, does not depend wholly on its press for its prestige or popularity. There are brains behind the concern, and we are glad of this opportunity of expressing our opinion regarding the paper. And we say this with derogation of the claims of THE TIMES' local contemporaries. All the dailies of Los Angeles average high as newspapers—as high as any in the State, and we hope that they are as prosperous as they appear or as they deserve to be. We sympathize with THE TIMES in its jubilation over the possession of that press. Now let us hear you kick about that word "sympathize."—[Oakland Times.]

Our esteemed contemporary is a trifle off about the "Presto"—it is five years old but a hummer just the same—still, we have "The Columbia" on the way, which lays a little over anything in the press line this side of sun-up. Watch us when it begins to yield facts and fables at the rate of 24,000 sheets of "em an hour! As to that word "sympathize," our Oakland namesake means so well that we have no kick a-comin'.

In the State convention at Topeka, Kan., four years ago, Lewis Hancock made a speech, a passage in which became famous in the campaign that year. It told of a hot and victorious fight by Col. Benjamin Harrison and his command at Peach Tree Creek, Ga., in the afternoon of July 20, 1864, and a game of seven-up by Grover Cleveland, the same afternoon, in a whisky saloon in Buffalo, N. Y. After a most striking description of the two engagements, Hancock thus rounded up his speech: "Oh, men of America! Proud of your country, of the glory of its past and of its promise for the future: Oh, citizens of this grand State, for whom will you vote? For him who won his star at Peach Tree Creek, or for him who won the drinks at Buffalo."

Is an interview with a veteran at the Soldiers' Home at Santa Monica, THE TIMES this morning prints the interesting facts concerning Grover Cleveland and the man who took his place as a substitute in the war of the rebellion for the stipulated price of $300, one-half of which Cleveland afterward repaid. The story is told in a plain, straightforward manner that will carry conviction with it, and it places the Democratic Presidential nominee in the position of a petty dead-beat, who disregards the appeals for assistance of the man he has victimized, even when the latter was on his death bed.

COLUMBIANS discovered a great country 400 years ago, and no man ever had his praises sung by a more intelligent and patriotic people. The motto for all is "Keep the country up to its high standard."—[Chicago Inter Ocean.]

The Chicago people seem to have misread the Inter Ocean's advice and are keeping the charges up to their high standard.

THE Ohio State Journal thinks, because Chairman Harrity subscribed $25 to the Democratic campaign fund, that he must have money to throw at the birds. Must be little chippy birds for a cent and not those "ere buzzards" from B. Bay.

OUR Democratic friends will now probably be heard singing that rollicking old ditty, "We're Rowan's our boat along."

AMUSEMENTS.

AT THE PLAYHOUSES.

GRAND OPERAHOUSE.—McFee or Dublin was given his final presentation at the Grand last night to a good house. The engagement has been a successful one, and John T. Kelly will be sure of a warm reception when he comes again.

COMING ATTRACTION.—Mrs. Pacheco's successful comedy Nothing but Money will be given its first production in this city at the Grand Opera-house tonight, and a great engagement is promised. The company, which comes to us in this play is exceptionally brilliant and capable, and as the play was "written around" the people who appear in it, the attraction is said to be in every way one of the notable theatrical successes of the season. E. L. Davenport made a tremendous hit in San Francisco in this piece, his work being of the most meritorious character. As we claim a proprietary right in Mrs. Romualdo Pacheco, the comedy author, it naturally has an added charm for Californian audiences. It promises to be a gala night, as the advance sales are very large.

HOUSE OF MOURNING

President Harrison in His Great Bereavement.

Arrangements for the Services at Washington Today.

Messages of Condolence Continue to Pour In.

The Programme of the Obsequies at Indianapolis Completed—Distinguished Men of the State to Act as Pall Bearers.

By Telegram to THE TIMES.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—[By the Associated Press.] A cold wind stripped most of the leaves from the trees in the White House grounds last night, and this morning the aspect of nature was bare and dreary. There will be no official recognition of Mrs. Harrison's death beyond flags at half mast on the Government buildings. Public business will go on as usual.

The body has been laid out in the room in which death occurred, but this afternoon it will be placed in the casket and taken to the east room, where it will remain until after the funeral services. The corpse shows the effects of the wasting illness, but the expression of the face is placid and kindly, as in life, with traces of suffering.

The President, though deeply grief-stricken, was more composed today than yesterday and was reasonably calm.

Among the senders of telegrams of condolence were: Senator and Mrs. Stanford of California, Gen. Thomas H. Ruger of San Francisco and Senator Mitchell of Oregon. A magnificent floral wreath was received from White-lake, Ind.

At a meeting of the Cabinet this morning it was decided that all members except Secretary Foster should go to Indianapolis to attend the funeral of Mrs. Harrison. Vice-President Morton will be one of the pall-bearers at the services here tomorrow. Secretary Rusk arrived this morning. Secretary Elkins will reach here during the day.

Indianapolis Funeral Arrangements.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 26.—Arrangements for the funeral of Mrs. Harrison are practically complete. The burial lot in the cemetery was selected this morning. It is beautifully located near the soldiers' graves. The honorary pall-bearers will be made up of distinguished citizens of Indiana, including Gen. Lew Wallace, Hon. W. P. Fishback, Judge William Woods and Hon. E. B. Martinale. The active pallbearers will be ten regular army officers.

The Pope's Sympathy.

ROME, Oct. 26.—The Pope was deeply interested in the illness of Mrs. Harrison and expressed much sympathy with her in her sufferings. When the gravity of the malady was declared His Holiness sent the distinguished patient the apostolic benediction.

Peter Jackson Arrives.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—The Teutonic arrived this evening with Peter Jackson on board. He said he intended to challenge Corbett.

The Address of the Evening Made by Mrs. Diggs of Kansas.

Music as a Factor in Working Up Political Enthusiasm.

Boasting Meeting of the Sixth Ward Republican Club—Speeches by Col. Walter S. Moore and Other Candidates—General Political Notes.

The People's party meeting at Hazard's Pavilion last night was well attended. It had been well advertised, and the crowd that responded comfortably filled the hall. Two ladies at the door sold badges at 25 cents each, and did quite a prosperous business until the meeting was called to order, when they took seats on the stage among the several candidates and others already gathered there.

Chairman Batchelor, of the County Central Committee, appointed J. D. Bailey as chairman of the meeting. Mr. Bailey accepted the high honor thrust upon him in a neat little speech read from manuscript and with a very weak voice.

Secretary Vinette then read the names of about twenty Populites who were to be vice-presidents, after which he read a resolution of sympathy for President Harrison in his present affliction, which was unanimously carried.

The glee club then favored the audience with a song in comic opera style entitled, "That's What's the Matter." On being encored they rendered another entitled, "Don't Throw Your Vote Away."

Candidate Wardell, who says he will be the next Sheriff of Los Angeles county, was the first speaker. He said very little and wasted less time in doing so.

Then the Baldwin children, dressed in red, white and blue, and each waving an American flag, sang patriotic songs and were also applauded.

Candidate Dillon, who says he is after District Attorney McLachlan's scalp, then spoke briefly, and was followed by another musical selection.

County Chairman Batchelor then made an appeal for funds and instantly, like magic, about fifteen men with little baskets simultaneously appeared in different parts of the hall. The clink of coin was heard and the baskets were finally delivered at the stage seemingly well filled.

Mrs. Diggs, the Kansas sunbeam, was the next presented to the audience. She received an ovation. She was in fair voice and complimented the audience on its fine and healthy appearance. She launched into a tirade against the journals of both parties and accused them of being engaged in a conspiracy of silence. She particularly "laid it on" to THE TIMES, and as the audience was large, the business office will probably feel the beneficial results of this free advertising during the next few days.

After tearing Dave Hill's late Tammany Hall speech to pieces, she dropped into pathos and bid her audience good-night and good-by, when the glee club sang another song and the audience departed.

SIXTH WARD REPUBLICANS.

The Sixth Ward Republican Club met in Dalton's Hall, corner of Washington street and Central avenue, last night. Standing room only was the limit reached in attendance, and after the regular routine business had been transacted a regular Republican whoop-up followed.

Walter S. Moore once more demonstrated his knowledge of the legislative requirements of this end of the State, and closed with a brief outline of the method which will be followed in the primaries on Saturday next. He urged the voters of the Sixth Ward to come out to the caucus which will be held at No. 1616 South Main street on Friday evening so as to carry out of the desire of the City Central Committee and make the coming caucus and primaries the most representative and fairest in the history of the city. He was followed by Mayor Hazard, who urged the necessity of every citizen taking his part in all the work which precedes the nomination and election of a strong and winning city ticket.

He warmly greeted and the sentiments which he expressed found great favor with the voters present.

Col. Brooker, speaking on local issues, made a clear and forcible thirty-five-minute talk. He paid a merited tribute to Col. W. S. Moore, candidate for Senator, calling particular attention to the fact (which goes unchallenged) that under his administration as Chief Engineer of the fire department it had grown to be one of the best fire services on the Coast, and as compared with other cities of like size, the best in the United States. During the past two years the position of fireman no longer carried with it the impressions that the wearer of a fire badge must of necessity be a tough. During this period no scandal had tainted the administration, nor occasion arisen for adverse criticism. These conditions had been the natural sequence of a clean and intelligent administration of the department by a chief whose executive ability warranted his promotion to a larger field of action in the Legislature of the State.

Col. Brooker's remarks were enthusiastically received, and no question remains as to the feeling of the Sixth Ward to the next Senator from the Thirty-seventh District.

William Young, candidate for Township Justice, and L. D. Rogers, candidate for Constable, followed in a few brief remarks. The meeting then resolved itself into a regular love feast, which lasted until a late hour. The Sixth Ward will roll up a rousing majority for the whole ticket on November 8.

POLITICAL POINTS.

The regular ward caucus of the Second Ward will be held this evening in the rooms of the Board of Trade, corner of First street and Broadway. Every Republican voter in the ward is earnestly requested to be on hand and exercise his right in the selection of a representative delegation to the municipal convention.

Supervisor A. E. Davis is making some telling speeches throughout the county, in which he shows up the fact-dodging arguments of the Democracy in their true light. The voters are no longer being misled by the cooked-up tables and figures which are being talked from the stump and circulated through the medium of unsigned circular letters. This was to be a campaign of education, and it is panning out as education invariably does—making Republicans of all who read and think for themselves.

The Sixth Ward Republican caucus will be held by precincts Friday evening. Precinct 21 at Dalton Hall, corner Washington street and Central avenue, at 7 o'clock. Precincts 22 and

THE first rain of the season brings with it a new demand for all classes of heavy clothing. It brings a demand for heavier underwear, more bed clothing, warmer cloaks and heavier dresses; it brings more activity; it brings more trade; it brings business in every department. The tendency all through the house is for increased business. The Cloaks and Dress Goods have the lead, and with trade here makes trade for dress trimmings and linings. The Cloak department is doing a very large business; it is doing business on a small margin; it is doing business to catch the masses, and it is catching. Cloaks for $2.50, $3.00, $3.50, $5.00, $6.00, $8.00, $10.00; here are popular prices. Then comes another range from $12.00 to $20.00, and in the finer goods; the stock is very large and shows a great abundance of styles. The Cloak trade of this house is as large as an ordinary business usually done in a regular dry goods house, and each day brings increased activity. In the Dress Goods department you will find a very large variety of popular priced goods, 50c, 60c, 65c, 75c; better grades for 85c, 90c and a dollar a yard; this is where our largest lines are shown; here is where small profits bring active buying; this is one of our ideas—low prices, quick selling. All along the line we show buyers double in number over one year ago; the trade of this house is very much larger and more prosperous in every way. Saturday night closing brings with it great popularity. P & P Kid Gloves bring trade to the Glove department; best fitting, best wearing, low in price, with all the qualities of a first-class glove retained, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00; this range of prices fits most anybody's purse; you will not be disappointed in the P & P Kid Glove; there is every reason why you should buy this glove in preference to all others. Our new Linen room will be opened next week. The only Linen room west of Chicago. It will place the Linen department in the front ranks, and there is where it should be.

GRAND ★ GUESSING ★ CONTEST!

Beginning Today We Start the Most Liberal Advertisement Ever Offered by Any Clothing House in California.

TWO VALUABLE PRIZES!

Will Be Given Away to Our Patrons on the Evening of December the 31st Next.

PRIZE NUMBER ONE.

An Elegant Kentucky Saddle Horse valued at $500.

This horse is the finest single footer in the State; is only 5 years old, and a perfect beauty Was imported from Kentucky by E. Wilcut & Son of 542 South Pearl street.

The Horse will be on Exhibition Saturday next in our Middle Window.

PRIZE NUMBER TWO.

An Elegant Large, Spotted Shetland Pony, New Harness and Cart, Whip and Robe, complete outfit, and worth $250.

This Pony and Cart is fine enough for the son of the richest man in the State. You can't imagine anything prettier.

The Pony and Cart will be on Exhibition Saturday next in our Middle Window.

HERE IS A CHANCE TO PROVE YOUR LUCK.

All you have to do to have an interest in the contest for the Horse is to buy $5 worth of merchandise in our Men's Clothing, Hat or Furnishing departments. For every additional $5 purchase you increase your opportunity.

You will guess on the winning number by recording your name in a book kept for this purpose Your number will be the one which you place your name opposite. Your purchase tag will then be given the same number. To get the Pony and Cart you become interested by buying any child's or boy's suit in our establishment. Then your purchase tag will receive the number that you may guess for the lucky winning number and your name and address be recorded.

THE PLAN OF SELECTING THE WINNING NUMBERS

Will be as follows: On the Evening of Saturday, December 31st next, the duplicate numbers of those held by our patrons will be placed in a large paper box, and three prominent and representative newspaper men of this city will superintend the selecting of the winning numbers, which will be done in our Middle Window in the presence of the public by a blind-folded child.

Everything Will Be on the Dead Square.

No Clerk or Proprietor will have any opportunity to take part in this contest. The prizes will go to legitimate patrons only.

Some People Cry Fraud

At the efforts of all who are more enterprising and liberal than themselves. To satisfy such people during the coming week we will publish a sworn statement of all of our employes to prove to you all that no goods have been advanced in price to pay for our prizes. We expect to increase our sales sufficient to recompense us, and can afford only to act honorable and upright with the public.

Rousing Republican Rally at Williams Hall.

Eloquent Speakers Discuss Live Campaign Issues — Mr. Stetson Wants a Divorce — Points About Well-Known People — Notes.

The Harrison Republican Club of Pasadena held the most enthusiastic mass-meeting of the campaign at Williams Hall last night. The incident was doubtless kept many away, but the hall was nevertheless filled. All of the political parties were represented and a number of ladies graced the occasion with their presence. Stretched across the stage over the heads of the speakers, was a long strip of canvas which was painted in large letters the word "Protection."

The meeting was called to order by J. A. Buchanan, president of the club. Without delay, County Treasurer J. Banbury, was introduced as the first speaker.

The speaker confined himself to preying to some of the many statements made by Mr. Shorsh, both by letter and during his active campaign which he has been carrying on during the past few weeks. Mr. Banbury called Mr. Shorsh to time for asserting that the office of a county treasurer is a non-political office thereby hoping to win some Republicans to his support.

On the matter of a third term, which Mr. Shorsh had been so strongly the speaker called attention to the fact that more than one of his Democratic predecessors had served three successive terms, all of whom had enjoyed the hearty support of the people.

The speaker refuted Mr. Shorsh's statements to the effect that the treasurer receives $7,000 a year in commissions over and above his salary, by saying that he receives no commissions at all. The speaker modestly referred to the changes wrought in the office during his administration, and to the fact that he is acting of the consideration of the voters on election day.

Arthur Bray, candidate for County Recorder; Frank E. Adams, candidate for County Auditor; F. M. Kelsey, candidate for Public Administrator, and J. H. Merriam, candidate for Justice of the Peace from the staunch support he has received at the hands of his friends and neighbors in Pasadena, the speaker proceeded to refute some of the statements that are being cast about by the stump speakers of the other political parties. A strong argument was made in favor of a protective party, as outlined in the McKinley bill, by comparing the condition of the laboring classes here and in other countries. Reference was made to the Homestead strike to show that the workmen there receive wages that are almost fabulous, besides owning comfortably-furnished homes, a condition of affairs which does not exist anywhere outside of this protected land. The McKinley bill was taken up some what in detail, and it was shown that there is not a single industry in the State of California that is protected. It was even shown that Mr. McKinley thought of Candidate Cannon when he was drawing up his famous measure by putting a duty on the beans which the Populist-Democratic aspirant for Congressional honors is protected in his home industry in Ventura county.

After paying high tribute to the principles and achievements of the Republican party, Mr. McLachlan proceeded briefly to answer some of the charges preferred against him by the stump speakers. He pleaded guilty to being foreign born, but, however, was proud of Scotland, the land of his birth. He was born in a humble cottage, but his parents were honest, honest and shame had never crossed the threshold of his humble home. He also pleaded guilty to the charge of being a man, in reply to Mr. Shorsh's charge that during Mr. Lachlan's term of office $2400 had been paid out for special counsel fees, it was stated that not a single dollar of the money had been paid. The amount referred to was paid out soon after Mr. McLachlan came into office, but for legal service rendered under his predecessor. Full and satisfactory answer was made to all charges made concerning the number of cases tried, the dismissal of certain cases, etc. Finally Mr. McLachlan took occasion to answer the charge of action in the railway tax cases, over which there has been so much talk, and where his opponent has seen fit to call his integrity into question. It was shown that the District Attorney has been ever vigilant in the prosecution of these cases, and has so far won two signal victories over the railroad company. "I am not a man," said Mr. McLachlan, "but I am rich in a clear conscience and a good name." The speech was one of the best heard here this campaign and aroused much enthusiasm.

The meeting then adjourned.

A NOTABLE SOCIETY EVENT.

Only brief mention was made in yesterday's issue of the reception given Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. L. Blankenhorn in honor of her mother, Mrs. Stevens, who is visiting in town.

The event was a notable one in social circles and was thoroughly enjoyable in every respect. The house was decorated with a wealth of chrysanthemums and the arrangements in most artistic fashion. Mrs. Blankenhorn was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. D. Daggett. Mrs. D. Daggett was seated at the tea table. Mrs. F. B. Wetherby served punch. Mrs. Grinnell and Mrs. Mitchell assisted in the entertainment of the guests. A large number of invitations had been sent out and as a result the house was thronged with guests between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock.

A MESSAGE OF CONDOLENCE.

At the meeting of the Republican Club held Tuesday evening, besides completing arrangements for last night's meeting, it was decided to hold a meeting on Saturday evening and another on Tuesday evening of next week, both at Williams Hall. A grand rally will be held, to which the Republicans of Los Angeles and all of the neighboring towns will be invited.

Before adjournment President J. A. Buchanan submitted the following message, which was telegraphed to President Harrison by the unanimous vote of the club:

"The Harrison Republican Club, voicing the sentiment of the citizens of Pasadena, without party distinction, send expressions of profound sorrow for the loss of a typical American wife and mother, a most genial and accomplished lady."

YESTERDAY MORNING dawned cloudy and everything pointed to an early break in the long spell of dry weather. Shortly before noon rain began to fall and continued for about an hour, but not in a very vigorous fashion. Towards evening, it began raining hard in the mountains and at the time of sending in this report it looked as if Pasadena would be treated to a generous soaking.

under Mr. Kyle's direction, for the benefit of the Charity Organization Society. The object is a most worthy one, and as all who go will be well entertained, there is no possible excuse for staying away. A number of tickets have already been sold, but more can be obtained at popular prices at Sueserott's store or of the following individuals:

Charles Walter Stetson has instituted divorce proceedings in the Supreme Court at Providence, R. I., to obtain a divorce from his wife, Charlotte Perkins Stetson. Both were former residents of Pasadena and are well known here. Mrs. Stetson is at present engaged in literary work in San Francisco and lives at Oakland. W. E. A NOTABLE SOCIETY EVENT.

Only brief mention was made in yesterday's issue of the reception given Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. L. Blankenhorn in honor of her mother, Mrs. Stevens, who is visiting in town.

The event was a notable one in social circles and was thoroughly enjoyable in every respect. The house was decorated with a wealth of chrysanthemums and the arrangements in most artistic fashion. Mrs. Blankenhorn was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. D. Daggett. Mrs. D. Daggett was seated at the tea table. Mrs. F. B. Wetherby served punch. Mrs. Grinnell and Mrs. Mitchell assisted in the entertainment of the guests. A large number of invitations had been sent out and as a result the house was thronged with guests between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock.

A MESSAGE OF CONDOLENCE.

At the meeting of the Republican Club held Tuesday evening, besides completing arrangements for last night's meeting, it was decided to hold a meeting on Saturday evening and another on Tuesday evening of next week, both at Williams Hall. A grand rally will be held, to which the Republicans of Los Angeles and all of the neighboring towns will be invited.

Before adjournment President J. A. Buchanan submitted the following message, which was telegraphed to President Harrison by the unanimous vote of the club:

"The Harrison Republican Club, voicing the sentiment of the citizens of Pasadena, without party distinction, send expressions of profound sorrow for the loss of a typical American wife and mother, a most genial and accomplished lady."

YESTERDAY MORNING dawned cloudy and everything pointed to an early break in the long spell of dry weather. Shortly before noon rain began to fall and continued for about an hour, but not in a very vigorous fashion. Towards evening, it began raining hard in the mountains and at the time of sending in this report it looked as if Pasadena would be treated to a generous soaking.

PASADENA.

Rousing Republican Rally at Williams Hall.

Eloquent Speakers Discuss Live Campaign Issues — Mr. Stetson Wants a Divorce — Points About Well-Known People — Notes.

The Harrison Republican Club of Pasadena held the most enthusiastic mass-meeting of the campaign at Williams Hall last night. The incident was doubtless kept many away, but the hall was nevertheless filled. All of the political parties were represented and a number of ladies graced the occasion with their presence. Stretched across the stage over the heads of the speakers, was a long strip of canvas which was painted in large letters the word "Protection."

The meeting was called to order by J. A. Buchanan, president of the club. Without delay, County Treasurer J. Banbury, was introduced as the first speaker.

The speaker confined himself to preying to some of the many statements made by Mr. Shorsh, both by letter and during his active campaign which he has been carrying on during the past few weeks. Mr. Banbury called Mr. Shorsh to time for asserting that the office of a county treasurer is a non-political office thereby hoping to win some Republicans to his support.

On the matter of a third term, which Mr. Shorsh had been so strongly the speaker called attention to the fact that more than one of his Democratic predecessors had served three successive terms, all of whom had enjoyed the hearty support of the people.

The speaker refuted Mr. Shorsh's statements to the effect that the treasurer receives $7,000 a year in commissions over and above his salary, by saying that he receives no commissions at all. The speaker modestly referred to the changes wrought in the office during his administration, and to the fact that he is acting of the consideration of the voters on election day.

Arthur Bray, candidate for County Recorder; Frank E. Adams, candidate for County Auditor; F. M. Kelsey, candidate for Public Administrator, and J. H. Merriam, candidate for Justice of the Peace from the staunch support he has received at the hands of his friends and neighbors in Pasadena, the speaker proceeded to refute some of the statements that are being cast about by the stump speakers of the other political parties. A strong argument was made in favor of a protective party, as outlined in the McKinley bill, by comparing the condition of the laboring classes here and in other countries. Reference was made to the Homestead strike to show that the workmen there receive wages that are almost fabulous, besides owning comfortably-furnished homes, a condition of affairs which does not exist anywhere outside of this protected land. The McKinley bill was taken up some what in detail, and it was shown that there is not a single industry in the State of California that is protected. It was even shown that Mr. McKinley thought of Candidate Cannon when he was drawing up his famous measure by putting a duty on the beans which the Populist-Democratic aspirant for Congressional honors is protected in his home industry in Ventura county.

After paying high tribute to the principles and achievements of the Republican party, Mr. McLachlan proceeded briefly to answer some of the charges preferred against him by the stump speakers. He pleaded guilty to being foreign born, but, however, was proud of Scotland, the land of his birth. He was born in a humble cottage, but his parents were honest, honest and shame had never crossed the threshold of his humble home. He also pleaded guilty to the charge of being a man, in reply to Mr. Shorsh's charge that during Mr. Lachlan's term of office $2400 had been paid out for special counsel fees, it was stated that not a single dollar of the money had been paid. The amount referred to was paid out soon after Mr. McLachlan came into office, but for legal service rendered under his predecessor. Full and satisfactory answer was made to all charges made concerning the number of cases tried, the dismissal of certain cases, etc. Finally Mr. McLachlan took occasion to answer the charge of action in the railway tax cases, over which there has been so much talk, and where his opponent has seen fit to call his integrity into question. It was shown that the District Attorney has been ever vigilant in the prosecution of these cases, and has so far won two signal victories over the railroad company. "I am not a man," said Mr. McLachlan, "but I am rich in a clear conscience and a good name." The speech was one of the best heard here this campaign and aroused much enthusiasm.

The meeting then adjourned.

SAN BERNARDINO COUNTY.

The Largest Democratic Demonstration of the Campaign.

Hon. Stephen M. White Greeted by an Immense Audience—Rousing Republican Meeting at Redlands—Special Trains to Accommodate the Crowds.

SAN BERNARDINO.

The largest political meeting yet held in this city during the present campaign was that which assembled at the pavilion on Tuesday night to hear the Southern California Democracy's favorite son, Stephen M. White, at the close of the evening. The city was thronged at an early hour in the evening, and the streets were filled with people. The meeting was held at the Redlands blowout, and nearly 1000 were brought to the Democratic meeting from Redlands, Riverside, Colton, Ontario and other points. The band met the different delegations as they arrived and conducted them to the pavilion, which was filled with people. The meeting was called to order at 8 o'clock by R. E. Bledsoe, chairman of the Democratic County Central Committee. Mr. Doyle, a newspaper man of Redlands, was named as the chairman of the evening and spoke in most complimentary terms of the speaker in introducing him. For an hour and a half the speaker expounded the doctrine of tariff reform, and received the closest attention throughout. At the latter end of his speech he spoke very briefly of the Force Bill, and eulogized several of the men nominated by the Democrats for local offices. He mentioned the names of the candidates for the various offices, and once, when the audience burst forth in loud applause. The meeting was characterized by the best of order, and the night was a success.

George Hoard is building two cottages on Olive street near Citrus avenue. A. A. Hoard is building a place to A. E. Sherman is preparing to move to Arizona. C. P. Squires and family removed to San Bernardino yesterday, where Mr. Squires has a situation.

ANDERSON KING.

Anderson King is constructing him a fine residence on Fern avenue, between Reservoir and Cajon streets. The Baker House has changed hands again in part. M. S. Lane still continues a part owner, but Mr. Montgomery has sold his interest.

SANTA ANA.

There were peals of thunder, not only political, but of the real old-fashioned good heavenly kind, in Santa Ana yesterday. It may be only an incident, but it is strange nevertheless that an unusual occurrence should immediately follow the demonstration of the People's party yesterday. About 11 o'clock fully 300 followers of the new political movement assembled at the West High street schoolhouse, and headed by the martial band in the Brunswick Hotel bus started on their parade through the principal streets of the city. There were eighty-eight vehicles of almost every conceivable style and manufacture, and in about every fourth or fifth vehicle was a banner expressing some undying principle of the party or mentioning some of the supposed degenerate movements of the two parties. Following are the banners that went twirling in the hands of men, women and children as the procession moved slowly past the Times branch office: "Free Silver for the People—Are You One of the People?" "Down With Land Monopoly." "Public Ownership of Railroads." "More Money and Less Panics." "The People Are the Cause of Humanity." "We Are Going to Get There." "Don't Vote for the Bosses." "Vote for Yourself—None for the State to Control." "We Appeal to the Public Conscience." "Public Ownership of Telegraphs." "No Pinkertons in the People's Party." "This is the People's Year." "The People Forever, Shynock Never." "Evolution, Not Revolution." "Free Trade and Tariff Are Chestnuts." "Discuss Living Issues." "We Want the People to Control." "Private Armies, U. S. S. Justice, Not Charity." "We Want the Earth, It is Ours." "Gold Standard for Wall Street." "What is the Real Dollar?" "Money At 2 Per Cent." "The People Are the Government." "Society to the People." "Cowardly Boats to the Front." "You'll Hear From Us in November." "We've Come to Stay."

SANTA ANA.

In the afternoon the city was filled with the overflow of the "Little Kansas Sunbeam," Anna L. Diggs, poor hot into the two old political parties. Mrs. Diggs said she had been making speeches every evening since she came into the State, and she was just beginning to find out what the big skating rink through the country were made for, they were made to hold People's party meetings in. She thought there was a conspiracy of silence with the newspapers of the country, and accused them of not mentioning their great meetings that were being held all over the country. She reviewed the growth of the party's movement and claimed that it was the outgrowth of an irresistible desire upon the part of the people to establish a new freedom of independence. She said she was going to leave the State of California today, and before she went away she wanted to find out something of the prosperity of this community. She then proceeded to inquire into the finances of the Democrats and Republicans present to ascertain whether or not any of them were mean enough capitalists to have an income of $3000 a year. She probably did not think just at that time of the $3000 per month—$3600 per year—she was getting and rapping the country. She is a woman, and women do forget things sometime. She said when she came to California before the LOS ANGELES TIMES told her she was a fortune teller, she was a calamity howling, but that she found the people in California did not have any more business connections with governmental affairs than the other citizens of the United States. She then read an extract from a New York telegram in THE TIMES, in which it was stated that the Democrats of New York, calling attention to the omissions of reference to the most vital issues of the campaign. She claimed to belong to a party that believed that an injury to one is the concern of all, and that believed in equal rights to all and special privileges to none. She believed there never was an employer or employee, and that the content of the contract was to advance the wages of his employees, and the poor, suffering voters of our great country, outside of the millionaire who has been able to buy his way to political office, and to the people who are being sold out by the politicians as minors, idiots or women. Her speech was closed with a strong plea for the People's party and for the adoption of the platform of the People's party. From a Populist standpoint the meeting was a howling success. Almost everybody seemed to enjoy themselves, and if not in the least bit, they were all in the little sunbeam from the State of Kansas, they seemed to be amused at last.

SANTA ANA.

Silkwood and Our Dick was sent away from the Santa Ana race track on Saturday, November 3, one week from next Saturday, in the race of their lives. The long-looked-for and much-talked-of race between these two wonderful horses has at last been arranged for the time for it to take place, and the track upon which it is to be run decided upon. Readers of THE TIMES are familiar with the wonderful efforts of the horses made in the American track during the recent meeting of the Los Angeles County Fair Association, in which Silkwood, W. Wood and Tom Rider were defeated by Our Dick in the grand free-for-all race, in 2:10. Silkwood was withdrawn from the race in the third heat, and after W. Wood had taken one heat, Our Dick won the race and the first money of the purse of $15000. Since the race in Los Angeles there has been some dissatisfaction among the admirers of Silkwood, as to the outcome of the contest, and an effort was at once made to make a match with the winner of the Los Angeles race and Silkwood. This effort was successful in bringing this special contest to the Santa Ana track to be run for a purse of $1500, and according to the American Association rules.

SANTA ANA.

The Santa Ana track is one of the best, if not the best, regulation tracks in the State, and this great race will be made as fast as possible. As the track will be put in such shape that the horses will be able to run in Los Angeles are expected to go against time. These races, together with other local races, will make up a full programme of racing for the winter. The Orange County Fair Association is to be congratulated on securing this great contest on the Santa Ana track.

SANTA ANA.

There will be a pigeon-shooting match at the fair grounds next Friday afternoon between Arthur West of Santa Ana and Eugene Maxwell of Los Angeles. There will be fifty live birds used in the contest, and the match is made for $50 a side.

SANTA ANA.

There will also be a shoot between Paul Knauf, the comedian barber, and Jimmy Jones of the Brunswick Hotel for an oyster supper in the evening at the hotel. There will be other local shoots in which several of the local crack shots will participate. The afternoon's programme will be given under the auspices of the Santa Ana Gun Club.

SANTA ANA.

The city was given over to the Populists yesterday. The Santa Ana Gun Club will give an oyster supper at the Brunswick Hotel Friday evening.

SANTA ANA.

J. T. Nourse and J. T. Hopkins have returned from the meeting of the presidency at Fresno.

"LEWIS, THE LIGHT."

The Religious Fanatic in the Role of a Fire-bug.

In Jail in San Francisco on Suspicion of Having Applied the Torch Which Caused the Turnverein Hall Fire in That City.

"Lewis the Light," the unspeakable fakir, who figured in this city for several years as a religious fanatic, posing as the inspired prophet of a new religion, is at last in a fair way of being put out of the way, either in the penitentiary or the lunatic asylum, but not before he managed to do considerable damage. The fellow, whose name is Greenslade, has a bad record in this city. Some six years ago he came to the Coast, accompanied by his wife, who died a year or two later, it is claimed, from cruel and neglect. Greenslade then went East, but again returned to Los Angeles, when he became a "prophet," and dressed in fantastic garb, was a familiar figure on the streets. The fellow would not work, but devoted his time to writing idiotic circulars, which he had printed and distributed about the city. His treatment of his children, two boys and one girl, was such that the Humane Society took charge of the latter. Greenslade attempted to get possession of her by habeas corpus proceedings, but was unsuccessful. He came very violent, and sent a number of threatening letters to the Judge and officers of the court, the result of which was that he was taken in charge and examined on a charge of lunacy. He was finally discharged, and, after hanging about the city for some weeks, disappeared, taking his two boys with him, since which time nothing has been heard of him.

On Monday last, as published in the Associated Press dispatches, Turnverein Hall, in San Francisco, together with eight other buildings, was destroyed by fire, causing a loss of about $25,000. It was thought the fire was incendiary, as threats had been made through the mails to burn or blow up Turnverein Hall if Sunday dances continued to be held there. The officers commenced work on this theory, and it now looks as if it is correct. He that Greenslade is the man who applied the match, as will be seen by the following extract from the account of the fire published in the Examiner of Tuesday:

Yesterday while Fire Marshal Towse and others were casting around for some clue to the mystery of the fire, a steady stream of a long beard and wild eyes was distributing circulars of a sensational nature to children and others on Capp street, in the vicinity of the fire. The fellow acted as if he wanted to get rid of his slips and dodgers in a hurry.

On being accosted by a reporter the man said his name was L. B. Greenslade, but that he was better known as "Lewis the Light." One of the printed slips referred to the disaster at the Berkeley Powder Mills. It began as follows:

"To all whom it does concern: Heed this warning and know the cause. I declare in the name of the Almighty God, Maker and Ruler of this World, it is done by him, the Destroyer, because he is blasphemed as 'The Devil.' Those who permit it done are equally culpable with those who do it."

Other slips contained incoherent references to "Death's Slaves," the words "Fire! Fire! Fire!" being used in a lavish manner, while something in the nature of a business card described "Lewis the Light" as a "dictator to darkness," a "greater discoverer than Columbus," and the "teacher of all things essential to salvation of body, soul and mind."

"Lewis" was detained and handed over to Sergt. Price. On being questioned he said that he lived at No. 410 Minna street, and was a teacher. It is claimed by him to have been both in Stockton and Agnews insane asylums, but said that "fifty expert doctors" had failed to discover anything wrong with him other than that he was "beyond their comprehension."

At No. 410 Minna street it was ascertained that Greenslade is being supported by his two sons, who act as messengers. He has been living steadily at the place for five months, despite his assertion that he came from Agnews three weeks ago, after putting in a season of five weeks in the asylum "resting and fattening up."

Greenslade was locked up at the Seventeenth street police station and will probably have to parade his intellect before "expert doctors" once more. Strict inquiries are being made with the idea of determining whether he had any connection with the fire.

NOTICE I

The following testimonial speaks for itself.

We have used Watson's Peerless Polish for over six months, and from personal experience and testimony from those who have been using it, we know it to be the best shoe dressing in the market.

Before placing it on sale we gave it a thorough test as to its effect on leather, together with every other dressing in use, and found it superior to all others. We have sold hundreds of bottles, giving a guarantee that if it did not prove what was claimed for it, money would be refunded. We have not had a single complaint or a bottle returned.

We do not hesitate to recommend it.

SAFEST PLACE TO TRADE

Her Majesty's CORSETS.

We are sole agents for Her Majesty's Corsets. This is another move toward gaining the finest trade of this town. We want the agency of every high-grade article in America. We have tried long and hard to get this agency, because it is the finest corset made in the world. The makers have been years in perfecting this model of scientific invention, and it is today sweeping the European and American continents, wiping out of sight the old-known makes and creating a furor in dressmaking circles, where fine figures are desirable to produce fine dresses. Today in London, Redfern, the fashionable dress-maker, refuses to fit dresses over any other but

Her Majesty's Corsets!

We beg to call your attention to the five following reasons why you should buy this corset in preference to all others. None of these five advantages have ever been accomplished in any other corset, except Her Majesty's Corset. Every pair warranted.

IT IS THE BEST, BECAUSE

1st, It is the only corset ever made that will reduce the size and increase the length of the waist of fleshy ladies without injurious tight lacing.

2d, It is proof against perspiration and moisture, and will neither corrode nor soil the underwear, stretch at the waist, nor do the bones move or come out in wear.

3d, It is the best and only real abdominal and spinal supporter in existence.

4th, It always retains its original shape, never becoming the form of the wearer. It is invaluable to young ladies, because it strengthens the spine, removes and prevents stooping and round shoulders. In this respect it will be found beneficial to all ladies, as it aids the wearer to assume an erect and healthful position in walking or riding.

5th, This corset must not be more than two inches smaller than the size of your waist when measured tightly over your dress. If so ordered, no corset maker can make one to order (at any price) that will fit as well, or with as much ease and comfort, or give such a magnificent form.

We guarantee that Her Majesty's Corset will wear longer, give more comfort to the wearer and produce a more exquisite figure than any other corset made.

They make three styles in Her Majesty's Corsets, viz.: Style R, or Regular; D, or Decollete; and E, or Elve. The three styles differ from one another in the bust only.

The R Style

Is the exact form of a perfectly formed woman.

The D Style

Is the same as the R, except that it has more than one inch cut off the top of the bust of the corset which makes it about the same height as the center of a lady's bust. This style corset is suitable for stout ladies, and tends to make them smaller, because the bust of the corset being cut low their own form fills up the balance. We would recommend the D to stout ladies.

The E Style

Curves in much higher in the bust than style R, and makes a lady appear longer waisted, because it somewhat elevates the bust and leaves more space between the waist and the top of the bust, and is more suitable for slim ladies.

We trust our explanation of the different styles is understood, because we guarantee that with one of the three styles we can fit every form and figure, whether long or short waisted.

Every bone in it is formed to the exact shape of a perfectly formed lady, and is put in the corresponding place in the corset. No two bones are alike, and when the corset is on every bone is in the place for which it is formed.

Our Boys' Dept.

It is the wonder of every mother who looks through it. No parent can afford to buy their boy a Fall or Winter Suit and not investigate our line. Although we do an immense business in this department, it is not our only source of profit, hence we offer greater inducements in the way of low prices than any other house in Los Angeles.

The following are a few of our specialties:

A strong, well made Satinette suit in dark colors and neat plaids and checks at $2.25; sizes 4 to 14.

A good serviceable Union Cassimere suit at $2.75; sizes 4 to 14.

A heavy Cassimere suit in medium dark brown; it makes a splendid school suit at $3.75; sizes 4 to 14.

KID GLOVES.

We are sole agents for this famous brand of Kid Gloves. Do not mistake the Foster Glove with the Foster hook. Foster is the maker of our kid glove as well as the patentee of the hook. By the paying of a royalty of $1.00 a dozen any manufacturer can place Foster hooks on the most inferior glove. We will sell you Foster's real make cheaper than others sell the inferior kid with the royalty paid patent hook.

THE DEADLY BOMBS.

The Coroner Still Investigating the Fireworks Disaster.

A Large Number of Witnesses Examined Last Evening.

Several Persons Say They Do Not Consider Wilson to Be Blame.

The Pyrotechnist Again Testifies in His Own Behalf, and Says the Recent Experiments Did Not Do Him Justice.

The taking of testimony in the matter of the inquest on the remains of the victims of the recent fireworks casualty was resumed last evening in Justice Stanton's courtroom. Some delay was experienced in getting down to work, two of the jurors not being present and it being necessary to send an officer out to find them.

At 6:25 o'clock all were present except Juror Robinson, and Coroner Weldon announced that he would begin the hearing of witnesses, and that when the absent jurors arrived the testimony could be read to him from the reporter's notes.

Mrs. Mary Bunker of No. 441 Broadway avenue was first called and identified the body of her husband, Bernard Bunker, a native of Iowa, aged 41 years, who died at the County Hospital on Sunday of injuries received at the time of the explosion.

E. Castillo, a cigarmaker living on Cyprus avenue, was at the fireworks exhibition, and inside the ropes at the time of the fatal explosion. He testified to hearing two reports, and corroborated the testimony of former witnesses regarding the killing of the boy Frank Ford and the subsequent scattering of the crowd.

E. W. Kinsey, clerk of Judge Owens's court, was sworn, and testified concerning the accident at the Union League festivities at San Juan. He had taken charge of the bomb used at that time, and knew it was not tampered with from the time it was delivered into his charge. Several persons were injured by the explosion of this bomb, which was fired from a two-inch mortar. Witness was thoroughly acquainted with the method of making and firing these bombs, having had considerable experience in the East.

The construction of bombs was once more explained, and the witness gave it as his opinion that no explosion such as the one that took place at that time could have occurred had the bomb been properly constructed. Wilson had afterward told the witness that the charge might have shifted, and that was the only explanation offered.

George Christian, who assisted the committee in charge of the Columbian celebration, testified regarding the order of the exhibition of fireworks, and said that the explosion occurred subsequent to the firing of the last piece, as he had heard the report, and that he was never the witness of the explosion.

S. Guasti, one of the committee, also gave corroborative testimony, as did N. Mercante. The witness who testified, however, did not know anything about Wilson having promised to furnish a policeman.

E. W. Kinsey was recalled at this point in the proceedings and exhibited portions of the mortar used at San Juan and a piece of which was blown over the pavilion, a distance of probably 500 feet. The mortar was about two inches in diameter and hardly as heavy as the one which burst last Friday night. In the East he had seen many large bombs fired and had helped to fire them, but he had never seen a mortar used, which, in his opinion, were capable of withstanding a much greater pressure.

The next witness was Charles Johnson, a student, who was at the exhibition and saw Wilson trying to chase some boys away, but that they laughed and threw pieces of earth at him. He saw some boys with some Roman candles, which they fired. He heard Wilson call for a policeman; later came the firing of one bomb, closely followed by the explosion. A boy named O'Brien was standing in front of the witness and his body fell on the witness when the explosion knocked both down.

J. Castruccio was put upon the stand, but his testimony threw no additional light on the matter.

A. Vigne, also called, but was not a member of the committee and knew nothing about the affair.

J. A. Rangan was examined and said he was a member of the committee, but knew nothing of police protection having been asked or promised.

George C. Johnson, a machinist, living in East Los Angeles, testified to having made some mortars for Wilson, but could not identify the pieces picked up on the scene of the explosion. He examined the pieces and gave it as his opinion that the material was of the best. The mortars he had made from material of the best quality, and what is known as "lap-welded" piping.

Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson, who met some boys coming from the fireworks, testified that they had told her about their having tampered with some bombs and having pulled the fuse nearly out of one, and that she did not know the boys, but thought she would recognize them if she saw them.

William Mann, partner of Mr. Johnson, and Frank Valliant, an employee, were both sworn and testified as to the strength and quality of the mortars, as shown by the fragments of the burst mortar. The pipe used is supposed to be tested at 500 pounds hydraulic pressure, but would break at a much less pressure if applied suddenly.

No, the witness did not think it possible for a man to break a piece such as the one exhibited—a strip 2x6 inches—by the simple pressure of his hands. If he did it was proof to him that the metal in the pipe was defective.

A deputy constable named Carpenter was called, but his testimony was of no material importance.

Mr. Guasti was recalled, and in reply to questions said that he would have considered Mr. Wilson in any way responsible had he himself been injured.

Eugene Bassett, a printer, residing near the scene of the explosion, said he had talked with some boys after the accident. His testimony was similar to that of Mrs. Thompson.

W. W. Beach and Joseph Mesmer were also examined, the latter witness having known Mr. Wilson for several years and considered him a perfectly competent man and an extremely careful one in the handling of explosives.

Walter Peck, a boy employed by Wilson to set off red lights, was sworn, and said he saw a lot of boys inside the lines who had no business there, and some one fired some gunpowder which simply made a flash and went off. He saw Mr. Wilson place ten bombs in the mortars, light the fuse, and then step off a little way and turn his back toward them. He did not see anyone put anything in the mortars or touch them except Mr. Wilson.

Mr. Wilson's son, Robert, a boy of about 15 years, was sworn, and said he saw no one meddling with any of the bombs or apparatus. He and his younger brother were busy trying to keep the crowd back, but lots of boys kept coming in, and took all their time attending to them.

Mr. Wilson then took the stand and told about the experiments made with some bombs a day or two ago in a gulch near Boyle Heights. The pipes used were small for the bombs and it was necessary to pound the bombs in with a stick. This was contrary to all rules precedent in the handling of fireworks, and, upon being discharged bottom side up, one of the mortars burst, which was quite as witness expected under the circumstances. The witness stated that the accounts of the experiments as published in the papers were not correct and highly prejudicial to himself.

He was taken out to the scene of the experiments without previous notice and was not allowed to have a friend present. As to the probable result of placing two bombs in the same mortar and firing the upper one, witness said that he would probably both be discharged and would leave the mortar in safety.

The witness again explained the construction of bombs, and said it would be impossible to place a bomb in the mortar in an inverted position without knowing it, as the fuse would be pinched or crowded against the sides of the mortar, as was the case in the experiments made at Boyle Heights.

In the matter of the accident, the first intimation that the witness had that anything serious had occurred was when he read it in the papers on Tuesday of this week. He was not present at the San Juan celebration and was in no way connected with the affair, except that he had donated the fireworks.

There being another witness which the Coroner desired to examine, the jury were then excused till 9 o'clock this morning, when the investigation will be resumed.

THE ORPHANS' FAIR.

The Military Out in Force—Another Attractive Programme.

The attendance at the Catholic Orphans' Fair, in progress at the Armory, was last night rather lighter than on the two preceding evenings, owing, doubtless, to the disagreeable weather and the slippery condition of the streets. The militia was well represented, and a drill by members of Co. C held on the floor of the hall constituted a pleasing feature of the programme. The troops were in command of Capt. Myer and went through a variety of evolutions in a manner to evoke enthusiastic applause from the lady spectators in the galleries and crowded about the booths at the sides of the hall.

Other features of the evening's entertainment were a violin solo, Moszkowski's "Spanish Dance," by Prof. Gardiner; a vocal solo, "Bedouin Love Song," by Willie Carroll, the blind boy, who also played his own accompaniment on the piano, and music by the band.

Tonight the programme will be in charge of Prof. Arevalo, who, with his club, will furnish some guitar music, also vocal selections by his pupils from the Orphan Asylum. The Roth sisters will assist, and the programme will doubtless be of unusual interest.

The noonday lunch served by the ladies in the Armory gymnasium is being very generally patronized by the business men of the city, and the proceeds of this department promise to be a large factor in the general result. A large flag, flying from the top of the "Plata Fina Club of East Los Angeles," is being contested for by the Republican and Democratic County Central Committees respectively and by the Seventh Regiment, N.G.C. The militia is far in the rear at present, and the members say they propose to stay there till near the close of the week, reserving their strength, soldier-like, for a final and successful rally, when they hope to capture the banner as a prize to adorn regimental headquarters.

The Orphan's Appeal is in the name of a bright little sheet published daily in the interest of the fair, and containing the programme for each evening and a variety of information touching on the needs of the orphan charges and kindred charitable subjects.

The contest for Sheriff is being used as a means of bringing revenue to the aid of the orphans, a handsome silver set being offered to the most popular nominee. So far the voting has not been heavy, but in this, as in all the contests of a similar nature, the great rush is looked for on Friday and Saturday evenings, on which occasion an extra force of tally clerks will be on duty, and without doubt will be kept busy.

East Side Notes.
Gleich W.R.C. will hold a fair shortly, probably about the 1st of December, at Banquet Hall. The ladies are beginning to make preparations for the event, which it is intended shall be the greatest success ever achieved by the local corps.

There will be a social at the Congregational Church on Friday evening, given by the ladies of the church and society. It is to be a "pumpkin pie" affair, the famous Peck sisters to also be in attendance.

J. A. Beattie of New York arrived on the East Side a few days since, and is quartered at the Hotel Glenwood.

Willie Was Acquitted.
The case of the little boy, Willie Pabst, charged with larceny was called in Justice Owens's court yesterday, and although no one was found to be present to prosecute, yet his attorney, C. B. Ladd, insisted upon a hearing in order to free him from any intent of wrong in the matter. The Court granted the demand, and on trial he was acquitted and thus freed from all stigma resting upon him, to the gratification and relief of his parents, who are worthy, upright people.

Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett, who is visiting in Boston in the interval between her summer stay at Swampscott and her winter residence in Washington, consents to a newspaper interview only on the condition that her personality be kept in the background as far as possible.

It would be interesting to have some high mugwump mackam explain the difference between subscribing to keep in office and subscribing in a frantic effort to get office.—(New York Commercial Advertiser.)

THE COURTS.

The Supreme Court Adjourns for the Term.

Departure of the Justices and Officers for the North.

The Monroe Forgery Trial Continued Before Judge Smith.

Taking of Testimony for the Defense Commenced—W. E. Cox, One of the Attorneys, on the Stand—General Court News.

The Supreme Court concluded its labors in this city yesterday morning, after having been in continuous session here for the past two weeks, and after adjourning for the term at noon, the officers who were in attendance upon the court shook the dust of Los Angeles off their feet and left for the North—the afternoon train leaving Deputy Clerk Ashmore in solitary state.

In Department One yesterday morning, before Justices Paterson (presiding), Harrison and Garoutte, the following business was transacted:

The cases of Hayne vs. Hermann, and La Societe Francaise Bienefaisance Mutuelle de Los Angeles vs. Weidmann et al., were orally argued and submitted.

Those of Ramon Vejar et al. vs. the Mound-City Land and Water Association et al., Ybarra vs. Sylvany, County of Los Angeles vs. Pablo Reyes et al., and the estate of Haas, deceased, were ordered to stand submitted upon the briefs already filed therein.

In Department Two, before Justices McFarland (presiding), Sharpstein and De Haven, the two cases of Meserve vs. the Pomona Land and Water Company were orally argued and submitted.

Those of Bull vs. Strong, and Yoakum vs. White were ordered to stand submitted upon the briefs already filed therein.

THE MUNROE CASE.

The Sensational Forgery Trial Continued Before Judge Smith.

After a few ex-parte matters on his calendar had been disposed of by Judge Smith yesterday morning, the trial of the Munroe forgery case was resumed, the first witness called being Deputy District Attorney Diehl, who was examined by the prosecution for the purpose of showing that the copies of the Helen Henry order embodied in the complaint, and information on file against Munroe were true and correct copies of the original, which he had referred to Jackson, after he had compared them with him.

This closed the case for the prosecution, and the defense immediately proceeded to recall Mr. Diehl as one of their witnesses. He was examined by W. E. Cox, Esq., associate counsel for the defendant, who must have been somewhat disappointed at the result of his efforts to extract some information which might be translated as favorable to his client. Mr. Diehl testified to the effect that when Jackson called at his office to obtain a complaint against Munroe, he was accompanied by Mr. Cox, who, in the course of the conversation which ensued, stated that Munroe had told him that he knew some of the orders were bogus. He was satisfied from what Jackson told him that the signature of Helen Henry had been forged by Munroe, otherwise he would not have drawn the complaint.

City Auditor F. E. Lopez was next called, and testified briefly as to having seen the Henry order at his office, but that he did not examine it closely, and was therefore not familiar with its contents. He was closely questioned as to the custom of his office with regard to such orders, and a number of other matters which did not appear to have any relevancy to the case at bar.

C. A. Hamilton, a deputy in the County Clerk's office, N. B. Eddy, Deputy Auditor, and Al Cobler, Deputy Tax Collector, were called for the purpose of showing that each had borrowed money from Munroe and given him an order on the County Auditor for their warrants similar to the one offered in evidence.

W. E. Cox, Esq., then went on the stand, apparently to refute Mr. Diehl's testimony, but only succeeded in corroborating that witness, and at this juncture a recess was declared until 2 o'clock.

At that hour the next witness, W. M. Friesner, was called, but failed to respond to his name, and the court thereupon adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning.

Court Notes.
Mrs. Sophia Bartels has instituted proceedings to obtain a divorce from her husband, Emil Bartels.

A. W. Andrews, the youth charged with the forgery of the signature of his room-mate, Frank Thieste, to a receipt for $70, appeared before Judge Smith yesterday morning with his counsel, Hugh J. Crawford, Esq., and, entering his plea of guilty to the charge preferred against him, waived time for sentence. The Court, however, not being conversant with the facts, deferred the passage of sentence until this morning.

The remittur in the case of Nicodemus Urquidias, convicted of burglary in the second degree and sentenced to San Quentin for one year, in April last, having been received from the Supreme Court yesterday morning, Judge Smith directed Clerk Crane to certify to that fact to the Sheriff in order that the judgment might be executed.

David Beasley, the boy burglar, appeared before his attorney, Hugh J. Crawford, Esq., yesterday morning in Department One and entered his plea of not guilty to the charge preferred against him, whereupon Judge Smith set the case for trial on November 9, next.

Judge Clark rendered his decision yesterday afternoon in the case of Frank Dehosa vs. Camillo Guercio, ordering a decree in favor of the defendant for his costs, and for the reformation of the contract in controversy so as to conform to the conditions agreed upon.

The defendant in the case of Louis Mesmer vs. D. J. Kraemer, on action to recover $1749.07, due on a couple of promissory notes, having allowed the matter to go by default, Judge Clark yesterday morning ordered judgment for the plaintiff therein, as prayed for.

Way the case of J. M. Skinner vs. William Niles, an action to foreclose a contract, was called for trial in Department Three yesterday morning, plaintiff demanded a jury, whereupon the matter was by consent reset for November 14 next.

The trial of the case of Gustav Kleiman vs. Antonio Benacio, an action to quiet title to and adjoint defendant from trespassing on thirty acres of land in sec. 2, T. 1 S., R. 18 W., resumed before Judge Wagoner yesterday, five witnesses being examined for the defense, but was not concluded and will be taken up again today.

Judge Van Dyke ordered yesterday morning that the defendant in the injunction suit of John Halzlip vs. W. G. McLaughlin need not plead, therein until five days after the court has ruled on the contempt proceedings pending against Halzlip in another case.

The plaintiff in the case of Nathan S. Porter vs. R. A. Locke et al., an action to quiet title, was allowed the five days' time by Judge Shaw yesterday morning within which to amend his complaint therein.

The trial of the case of W. F. Swayze vs. N. M. Entler was resumed before Judge Shaw yesterday afternoon, but after five witnesses had been examined for the defense, the matter went over until today.

The trial of the damage suit instituted against the Southern California Railway Company by Mrs. Arcadia R. de Baker, which has been pending before Judge Van Dyke and a jury in Department Four for the past two weeks, is at last approaching conclusion. Yesterday S. M. Blandford, Fred Eaton, E. H. Dalton, Romero Pico, were examined for the defense, which then rested its case, and ten witnesses were recalled by the plaintiff in rebuttal, the rest of the session being consumed in the settlement of the instructions to the jury. The case will in all probabilities be closed today, so far as the testimony is concerned.

New Suits.

Among the documents filed with the County Clerk yesterday were the preliminary papers in the following new cases:

Vincente Valdez vs. Samuel Cooper, $800 suit to quiet title to and recover $800 damages for trespass on 160 acres of land in section 26, T. 1 N., R. 17 W.

Petition of Mr. Alaskan Hoffman for the removal of Hugh R. Stevens as guardian of Hugh Alaskan Stephens, he having left the State.

Broadway Bank vs. W. A. Pallette et al., suit to recover $1,125 and any cost, alleged to be due on a promissory note.

Today's Calendar.

DEPARTMENT ONE—Judge Smith. People, etc., vs. George Mudro, forgery; on trial. People, etc., vs. A. W. Andrews, forgery; for sentence.

DEPARTMENT TWO—Judge Clark. Estate of Margaret Wade, deceased; letters. Estate of Robert W. Lacey, deceased; petition for order. Estate of Miguel Leonis, deceased; citation.

THE "GREEN-GOODS" FAKE.

The old-time, worn and oft exposed "green-goods" game is again being tried on California citizens, several of whom have recently received the mysterious circulars from the New York man who claims to have the stuff for sale. In a circular which was received by James W. Doran of Idlewild, San Bernardino county, and which was promptly forwarded to THE TIMES by Doran, the circular was signed by the anonymous New Yorker for his goods, provided the correspondent will come on to that city and deal face-to-face for the "goods."

As many times as it has been shown that the New Yorker has no counterfeit money, and consequently sells none, it appears necessary to inform people still further on the subject. The supposed newspaper clipping, which accompanies the mysterious circulars, is as much a fraud as its author, for it never appeared in any paper, being a clever imitation designed to deceive by a fabricated piece of news, in which there are no facts.

The former plan of shipping a box of sawdust in return for the good money forwarded to the New York sharper by poor but dishonest citizens, has been supplanted by various other schemes by which the victim is gulled. The New Yorker now insists on meeting his customer face to face, and in these deals no counterfeit money changes hands, though the real money carried by the victim always does.

As people are found every now and then who are led to believe that counterfeit money, at the rate of $10,000 for $650, can be bought in New York, and only a few of them make public the alluring offers they have received in a manner so mysterious to them, the "green-goods" man continues to flourish and continually changing his address and dodging detectives can wax fat on his confidence game.

As Mr. Doran was cautiously informed on a slip of paper printed in imitation of typewriting he should, if he wanted to handle these goods, send a telegram—no letter under any circumstances—to the address given, care of some place or other (usually a saloon), and saying only this: "Uncle Jocks lives Number 302 West Ninth street."

Laid to Rest.

Funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Hannah T. Davis, wife of J. L. Davis, were held at the Cathedral yesterday, the interment being in the Catholic Cemetery. The death of Mrs. Davis, which occurred at her residence, No. 1135 South Hill street, on Monday, was very sudden, the lady having been seriously ill but a few hours. She leaves two little children. Mr. Davis has the warm sympathy of a large circle of friends in his great bereavement.

Licensed to Wed.

Marriage licenses were issued at the County Clerk's office yesterday to the following persons:

Isaac A. Jenkins, a native of California, 28 years of age, of Compton, to Minnie H. Moreland, a native of Georgia, 21 years of age, of this city.

O. L. Barnes, a native of Pennsylvania, 30 years of age, to Elizabeth Coleman, also a native of Pennsylvania, 26 years of age; both residents of Pasadena.
